Preface

To the Aspirant Who Dares to Dream

In the quiet corners of libraries across India, in the solitude of late-night study sessions, and in the hearts of millions who dare to dream of serving the nation, lies an unwavering determination to crack one of the world's most challenging examinations – the UPSC Civil Services Examination.

Mains 365 was born from that very spirit of determination and the recognition that success in UPSC CSE Mains 2025 demands more than just hard work; it requires strategic preparation, comprehensive understanding, and the ability to connect diverse streams of knowledge into coherent, impactful answers.

Q.1 Why most of UPSC aspirants fail to crack mains?

- Scattered Information: Jumping between multiple sources creates confusion
- Outdated Content: Using materials that don't reflect current developments
- Lack of Integration: Inability to connect static knowledge with current affairs
- Poor Answer Structure: Not knowing how to present knowledge effectively
- Missing the UPSC Mindset: Failing to understand what UPSC actually want

But what if you could overcome ALL these challenges with ONE comprehensive resource?

Q2. Why Mains 365 Polity?

It is a one-stop annual compendium that distills every high-stakes current-affairs theme—court verdicts, policy shifts, data sets—into exam-ready notes mapped topic-by-topic to the UPSC CSE Mains syllabus.

Also, Polity Mains 365 document enriches multiple GS papers—e.g., Polity links with GS-I (social justice), GS-III (digital economy), and GS-IV (transparency and ethics).

Q3. How does it mirror the General Studies papers?

Each chapter is named after a syllabus topic like Constitution, Governance, Social Justice, Environment, etc., so you can easily match your reading with the syllabus checklist.

Q4. I already have static books. Why do I need this?

Static concepts fetch marks only when linked to real examples. Mains 365 does this by connecting the year's key judgments, committee reports, data, and global comparisons to theory—making your answers sharper, richer, and more analytical.

Q5. Will it actually save me time in the exam hall?

Yes. Infographics, contrast tables and "Why in News" blocks act like visual flashcards; you recall a picture, not a paragraph. That shaves minutes off every 10- or 15-marker.

1.5. UNIFORM CIVIL CODE (UCC)

Why in the News? → CAN BE USED AS INTRODUCTION

Uttarakhand recently implemented the Uniform Civil Code (UCC).

Judicial Pronouncements related to UCC

- Ahmed Khan v. Shah Bano Begum (1985): Highlighted gender justice and the need for uniform personal laws.
- Sarla Mudgal v. Union of India (1995) and Lily Thomas (2000): Emphasized reforming personal laws to prevent misuse.
- Shayra Bano v. Union of India (2017): Declared talaq-e-biddat (instant triple talaq) under the Shariat Act of 1937 as arbitrary and invalid.

CAN BE USED AS VALUE ADDITION

Arguments in favour of UCC in India	Arguments against UCC
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Constitutional Duty: Article 44 directs the state to strive for a UCC. • Contemporary Society: Outdated religious practices like polygamy must end to ensure progress and equality. • International Obligations: UCC aligns with India's commitments to human rights conventions, including the United Nations Human Rights Convention. • Simplification of Laws: Uniform laws enable quicker, fairer justice. • Modernization: UCC reflects evolving, inclusive social values. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Against Diversity: Personal laws are integral to cultural and religious identities, and UCC could infringe on religious freedom (Article 25). • Lack of Consensus: Imposing UCC without community agreement may cause social unrest. • Against Cooperative Federalism: UCC could encroach on states' legislative powers, undermining cooperative federalism.

CONTRAST TABLE

Q6. What gives my answers extra credibility?

Ready-to-quote lines from Sarkaria, Punchhi and 2nd ARC, key words plus facts (e.g., ₹1.9 billion lost to internet shutdowns in 2023) embed instant authority. Examiners love precise references.

This year, we have included keywords after each chapter to serve as ready-made value addition—helping you enrich answers quickly and make them more subject-oriented.

Q7. How is it structured for the 3-hour examination?

Every sub-topic follows the golden sequence—Context → Analysis → Way Forward—so you can lift the framework, plug in your insights, and write at full speed while others are still outlining.

We've also included a practice question at the end of each chapter to encourage quick answer writing and reinforce retention.

Q8. Can you demonstrate with an actual question?

PYQ: "Discuss the challenges of cooperative federalism in India."

Quick extract from Mains 365 Federalism:

- CBI consent standoffs (administrative)
- GST Council frictions (fiscal)
- Governor state tussles (political)
- Punchhi Commission reforms (solution set)

Plug these into Intro–Body–Conclusion:

Start by defining cooperative federalism, illustrate each challenge with a current example, conclude by suggesting reforms and drawing a parallel to the U.S. "marble-cake federalism" model.

Result will be a focused, 250-word answer that links recent data and committee reports to theory—just what UPSC looks for in a 15-mark question.

Q9. What's the recommended micro structure for each 15 marker?

- Intro (≤ 30 sec): Why in the News, Quote or data/facts.
- Body (≤ 6 min): 2–3 dimensions, each with evidence & analysis.
- Way forward (≤ 1 min): 3–4 actionable reforms.
- Conclusion (≤ 30 sec): Memorable, visionary sentence.

Q10. Any final pro tip?

Think of Mains 365 as a ready answer bank: it's pre-curated—your job is just to pick, organise, and add your own insight. Use it wisely, and find questions becoming easier to answer and higher marks becoming more achievable.

1. INDIAN CONSTITUTION, PROVISIONS AND BASIC STRUCTURE

1.1. 75 YEARS OF INDIAN CONSTITUTION AT A GLANCE

1.2. CASTE CENSUS

Why in the News?

Centre issued notification for census which begins from October 2026 in Ladakh and March 2027 across rest of India which includes caste census.

More on the News

- First since Independence: For the first time, caste data beyond SC/ST will be officially collected in the decennial census.
 - The last official caste census data is available for the 1931 census as the 1941 data was not publicized due to World War II.
- State Survey Discrepancies: State-level caste surveys (e.g., Bihar, Karnataka) lack standardization and credibility.
 - Unlike surveys, a caste census is constitutionally mandated.

Census in India

- About: India's decennial census offers vital demographic, social, and economic data. Held regularly since 1881, the 2021 census was delayed due to COVID-19.
- Legal Framework:
 - Constitutional: Census is a Union subject (Entry 69, Seventh Schedule, and Article 246).
 - Statutory: Governed by Census Act, 1948 and Census Rules, 1990.

Need for Caste Census

- Constitutional Mandate: Article 340 mandates a commission to examine socially and educationally backward classes.
- Policy Making: Updated caste data is essential for targeted welfare, evidence-based policymaking, and fair resource allocation.
 - OBCs argue lack of data leads to underrepresentation in national policies.
- Affirmative Action: Enables effective identification and monitoring of beneficiaries of reservations.
 - SC rulings uphold caste as a valid criterion for reservations.
 - Demands by groups like Marathas and Jats can be better assessed.
- Sub-Categorization: Supports fair benefit distribution among OBCs.
 - Justice Rohini Commission submitted its report but report's findings are yet to be made public.
- Comprehensive National Database: Ensures standardized, transparent caste data across India.

Issues associated with Caste Census

- Data Accuracy and Reporting: Self-declared caste identities and inadequate training may cause errors or manipulation. E.g., 2011 SECC had inflated figures due to duplicates and spelling errors.
- Classification Issues: Centre-state caste list variations create inconsistencies. For instance, a caste listed as OBC in one state may be unrecognized in another (e.g., Jats in Haryana vs. Uttar Pradesh).
- Political Sensitivities: Caste recognition can trigger reservation demands and unrest.
- Identity Politics: May fuel caste-based mobilization, worsening social divides.
- Privacy Concerns: Digital caste data risks breaches, especially in digitally weak rural areas.

Way Forward

- Consultative Process: The Census Commissioner must engage academics, caste groups, political entities, and the public to ensure accurate caste enumeration.
- Caste Directory: A standardized national caste directory should be prepared with expert input, draft lists published online for feedback, and finalized for enumerators.
- Training & Technology: Enumerators must be well-trained to prevent errors, using AI and Big Data tools to enhance data accuracy and reliability.

Conclusion

In the words of Dr. Ambedkar, “You cannot have political reform without social reform.” A caste census, therefore, can be a step toward data-driven social reform and equitable policy, if carried out with objectivity and unity in mind.

1.3. RESERVATION

1.3.1. RESERVATION AT A GLANCE

Reservation
Constitutional provisions related to reservation

Important Judgements of SC related to Reservation in India

Facts about their inadequate representation in public employment. Reservations are in the interest of administrative efficiency. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Reservation in promotions does not require state to collect quantifiable data on backwardness of SCs and STs. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> SC upheld 103rd Constitution Amendment Act which provided for EWS reservation, based on economic criteria. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Supreme Court allowed sub-categorisation of Schedule Castes for the purpose of reservation within SCs.

1.3.2. SUB-CLASSIFICATION OF SCHEDULED CASTES

Why in the News?

In the State of Punjab & Others vs. Davinder Singh & Others case (2024), a 7-Judge Constitutional Bench of the Supreme Court ruled that sub-classification of Scheduled Castes (SCs) is permissible to provide separate quotas for more backward groups within Schedule Caste categories.

More on the News

- The 7-Judge Bench examined:
 - Whether sub-classification within reserved castes is allowed.

- The correctness of the E.V. Chinnaiah v. State of Andhra Pradesh (2005) decision, which held that SCs notified under Article 341 form a homogenous group and cannot be sub-categorized.
- Recently, Telangana has become the 1st State to implement Scheduled Caste (SC) sub- categorization after the Supreme Court judgement.

Key Highlights of the Judgment

- Sub-classification within SCs does not violate Article 341(2), as it does not involve including or excluding castes from the President's List.
- Scope of Sub-classification:
 - Aims to provide substantive equality (not just formal equality) under Article 14 by addressing historical injustices and varying backgrounds of groups.
 - States can sub-classify based on inadequate representation due to backwardness, supported by data on representation in state services.
- States cannot act arbitrarily without data or for political gain; decisions are subject to judicial review.
- States cannot reserve 100% of SC seats for one group, excluding other castes in the President's List.
- SCs under Article 341(1) are heterogeneous, with varying degrees of backwardness.
- Four judges suggested extending the "creamy layer principle" to SCs and STs, but this was not a directive, as it was not directly relevant to the case.

Arguments For and Against Sub-classification

Arguments For Sub-classification	Arguments Against Sub-classification
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Substantive Equality: Prioritizes the most marginalized within SCs/STs. ● Governance: Enhances diversity and efficiency in governance. ● Heterogeneous Groups: Recognizes diverse groups within SCs with varied discrimination levels. ● Legislative Competence: Post-designation under Article 341, states can legislate under Articles 246, 15(4), and 16(4). 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Unity and Solidarity: Risks dividing the SC community, weakening collective strength. ● Purpose of Reservation: Reservation addresses historical injustice, not economic welfare. ● Persistent Stigma: Economic mobility may not eliminate caste-based discrimination (e.g., Oxfam's India Discrimination Report 2022). ● Data Limitations: Lack of reliable caste census data (e.g., flawed SECC 2011). ● Potential for Misuse: Risk of political manipulation to expand vote banks.

Conclusion

States should articulate clear, objective, and justifiable criteria for sub-classification, based on empirical evidence of relative backwardness and inadequate representation, rather than subjective assessments.

1.3.3. DOMICILE-BASED RESERVATION

Why in the News?

Karnataka State Employment of Local Candidates in the Industries, Factories and Other Establishments Bill, 2024 approved by Karnataka Cabinet.

More on the News

- The bill mandates 50% reservation for locals in management jobs and 75% in non-management positions in industries, factories and other establishments in private sector.
 - Earlier, several states such as Haryana, Andhra Pradesh, etc. have enacted similar legislation to ensure reservations for locals in private sector.

Court Judgements on Domicile Based Reservation

- The Act enacted by Haryana was declared unconstitutional by the Punjab and Haryana High Court as it violated Part III (Fundamental rights) and the constitutional morality principle.

- Recently, Supreme Court (Tanvi Behl v. Shrey Goel and others, 2025) declared the domicile-based reservations in PG Medical seats as unconstitutional for violating Article 14 of the Constitution.

Why states are pushing for local Reservations in the Private Sector?

- Private sector is the biggest job creator, thus reservation can fulfill the commitment to social justice.
 - It is also argued that Jobs created in a state should be offered first to those who belong to that State.
- The private sector, benefits from the government ie. tax concessions, cheaper loans etc., thus, can be asked to implement affirmative policy.

Constitutional Provisions related to Domicile-based Reservations

Article 16 (2): No citizen shall, on grounds only of religion, race, caste, sex, descent, place of birth, residence or any of them, be ineligible for, or discriminated against in respect of, any employment or office under the State.

- Article 16(3), however, allows the Parliament to make any law prescribing residence within a State or UT in regard to a class or classes of employment under the Government of State/ UT or local authority.

Concern Raised

- Affects ease of doing business, may push businesses to migrate due to a lack of skilled workforce.
- Fuels sons-of-the-soil syndrome (preferring locals) in other states as well.
- Violates Right to equality under Articles 14 and 16 and Right to freedom to practice any profession or to carry on any occupation, trade, or business (Article 19(1) (g)).

Conclusion

Domicile-based reservation can bridge regional disparities but must not dilute the constitutional promise of equal opportunity.

1.4. CITIZENSHIP

1.4.1 CITIZENSHIP AT A GLANCE

Citizenship

Citizenship is an idea of exclusion as it excludes non-citizens. It is in the Union List. Constitution does not define the term 'citizen'.

Modes of Acquiring Citizenship: Birth, Descent, Naturalisation, Registration and Incorporation of the territory.

Constitutional provisions

Article 5: Citizenship at the commencement of the Constitution.

Article 6: Rights of citizenship of certain persons who have migrated to India from Pakistan.

Article 8: Rights of citizenship of certain persons of Indian origin residing outside India.

Citizenship Amendment Act (CAA), 2019

CAA aims to give citizenship to target group of migrants even if they do not have valid travel documents as mandated in Citizenship Act, 1955.

Illegal migrants who fulfil four conditions will not be treated as illegal migrants under Act. They are

- Hindus, Sikhs, Buddhists, Jains, Parsis or Christians
- from Afghanistan, Bangladesh or Pakistan they entered India on or before December 31, 2014
- not in certain tribal areas of Assam, Meghalaya, Mizoram, or Tripura included in Sixth Schedule, or
- areas under "Inner Line" permit, i.e., Arunachal Pradesh, Mizoram, and Nagaland.

Reduced period of naturalisation from 11 to 5 years for above category of migrants.

Need of CAA 2019

Upholds human rights by protecting persecuted individuals' life and liberty.

Enhances national security by distinguishing illegal immigrants from persecuted minorities.

Provides relief to persecuted minorities from three Islamic neighboring countries.

Concern Raised

Excludes migrants from nations like Sri Lanka and Myanmar despite persecution.

CAA Rules, 2024 lack test to verify persecution-based migration.

Excluding Muslims, Jews, Atheists violates Article 14 and secularism

CAA treats migrants differently based on entry before December 31, 2014.

1.4.2. SECTION 6A OF CITIZENSHIP ACT

Why in the News?

Constitution bench of Supreme Court (SC) upheld the validity of Section 6A of Citizenship Act, 1955.

About Section 6A

- Section 6A was added through Citizenship (Amendment) Act, 1985 in furtherance of 'Assam Accord', to give citizenship to migrants from East Pakistan to Assam from January 1, 1966, until 24 March 1971.
 - It also paved the way for updating of NRC in Assam in 2013.

- Background of Assam Accord:

- Post-1947, Assam saw a large influx of migrants from East Pakistan (now Bangladesh), especially during and after the 1971 Bangladesh War, causing fear among locals about identity, culture, and land rights.
- The Assam Agitation (1979–1985) led by All Assam Students' Union (AASU) demanded the detection and deportation of illegal migrants.
- The agitation ended with the Assam Accord, signed on 15 August 1985 between AASU, the Government of India, and the State Government of Assam, to address the issue of illegal migration and safeguard Assamese identity.

SC Judgement

- Upheld Legislative competence of Parliament to enact section 6A: Under Article 246 (Entry 17 of Union list)
- Article 14 (Equality): Not violated because the migrant situation in Assam was unique.
- Impact on Culture (Article 29 (1)): No evidence
- Cutoff date of 24 March 1971: Reasonable because Pakistani Army launched Operation in East Pakistan on 26 March 1971.

Other Implications of the SC Judgement

- Case for Assam NRC Strengthened: Supports Assam NRC's use of 1971 cut-off to exclude illegal migrants.
 - However, uncertainty persists for 1.9 million excluded from 2019 NRC draft await clarity, pending final list.
- Conflict with CAA (2019): Critics (e.g., AASU) argue CAA (2019) undermines 1971 cut-off, fueling legal challenges.
- Economic Implications: Pre-1971 migrants' citizenship rights may stress Assam's economy.
- Social Implications: Tensions between Assamese and migrant communities (e.g., Bengali-speakers) may grow.

Conclusion

The Supreme Court's judgement upholding the Assam Accord addresses long-standing identity concerns in Assam while reaffirming constitutional principles. However, its implementation must balance national security with humanitarian values and due process to ensure justice for all.

1.5. UNIFORM CIVIL CODE (UCC)

Why in the News?

Uttarakhand recently implemented the Uniform Civil Code (UCC).

About Uniform Civil Code (UCC)

- Definition: UCC refers to a unified system of personal laws applicable to all citizens, regardless of religion, covering matters like marriage, divorce, maintenance, inheritance, adoption, and property succession.
- Current Status:
 - Most Indians are governed by their respective religious personal laws.
 - Goa follows a form of UCC under the Portuguese Civil Code of 1867.
 - The 21st Law Commission (2018) opined that UCC is neither necessary nor desirable currently, recommending instead gender-just reforms in religious family laws.

Judicial Pronouncements related to UCC

- Ahmed Khan v. Shah Bano Begum (1985): Highlighted gender justice and the need for uniform personal laws.
- Sarla Mudgal v. Union of India (1995) and Lily Thomas (2000): Emphasized reforming personal laws to prevent misuse.
- Shayra Bano v. Union of India (2017): Declared talaq-e-biddat (instant triple talaq) under the Shariat Act of 1937 as arbitrary and invalid.

Arguments in favour of UCC in India	Arguments against UCC
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Constitutional Duty: Article 44 directs the state to strive for a UCC. ● Contemporary Society: Outdated religious practices like polygamy must end to ensure progress and equality. ● International Obligations: UCC aligns with India's commitments to human rights conventions, including the United Nations Human Rights Convention. ● Simplification of Laws: Uniform laws enable quicker, fairer justice. ● Modernization: UCC reflects evolving, inclusive social values. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Against Diversity: Personal laws are integral to cultural and religious identities, and UCC could infringe on religious freedom (Article 25). ● Lack of Consensus: Imposing UCC without community agreement may cause social unrest. ● Against Cooperative Federalism: UCC could encroach on states' legislative powers, undermining cooperative federalism.

Way Forward on Implementing UCC in India

- Consensus Building: Engage stakeholders through inter-faith dialogues to avoid social discord.
- Socio-Economic Impact Analysis: Assess impacts on marginalized communities and include protective provisions.
- Education and Awareness: Foster a progressive mindset to help people understand UCC's objectives.
- Codification of Personal Laws: Establish universal principles through codification to ensure fairness and equity.

Conclusion

In a country as culturally diverse as India, the Uniform Civil Code must aim not at imposing uniformity but at achieving fairness and equality across communities. It should emerge from dialogue, not dictate—respecting pluralism while upholding constitutional values.

1.6. SEPARATION OF POWERS

Why in the News?

The Vice President of India stressed the need for a clear separation of powers, warning that any overlap among the Legislature, Executive, or Judiciary risks institutional overreach.

Separation of Powers

- It means demarcation of authorities and duties into three branches of government – Executive, Legislature and Judiciary.
- Origin: Aristotle for the first time classified the functions of the Government into three categories viz., deliberative, magisterial and judicial.
- Modern Theory: In his book The Spirit of the Laws (1748), Montesquieu enunciated and explained his theory of the Separation of Powers.

Principles of Separation of Powers

Exclusivity Principle:

Dividing the government into three structural organs.

Functional Principle:

Delineating the boundaries of the organs, and that one organ shall not perform the functions of the other.

Check and Balance Principle:

Check should be made on each other by these organs to look after the functions and duties performed are within the constitutional bounds.

Mutuality Principle:

Creating concord, not discord, cooperation not confrontation, engagement not estrangement.

Separation of Powers in India

- Delicate Balance: The Indian Constitution is based on a delicate principle of limited separation of powers with sufficiently differentiated functions of different organs and checks and balances.
 - Article 50 directs the State to take steps to separate the judiciary and executive in the public services.
- Functional Overlap:
 - The President (executive head), exercises legislative powers as in promulgating ordinances.
 - Legislature exercises judicial function in the removal of the President and Judges, breach of its privilege, etc.
 - The judiciary exercises legislative and executive power in issuing guidelines to executives and making certain legislative amendments. Eg. Vishakha Guidelines.
- Part of Basic Structure as held by the SC.
- Conflicts among Organs:
 - Judicial Interventions: Ruling that the President must decide on State Bills, reserved by the Governor for Presidential assent, within three months.
 - Legislative encroachment: National Judicial Appointments Commission (NJAC) Act, which included the Union Law Minister and two eminent persons in committee recommending judges.
 - Executive overreach: Executive majority in tribunals, frequent promulgation of ordinances

Conclusion

Organs of government cannot function in watertight compartments, so, a broad separation of power with some functional overlap and adequate checks and balances furthers the goal of democracy.

1.7. PROPERTY RIGHTS IN INDIA

Why in the News?

Supreme Court in a significant ruling in Property Owners Association v State of Maharashtra, limited state powers in acquiring private property.

More in the News

- Overruled previous judgments: suggesting private properties could be community resources in Ranganatha Reddy case (1978) and Sanjeev Coke Manufacturing case (1983).

Key highlights of the judgement

- Article 39(b) Scope: Private property isn't automatically a "material resource" for community use.
- State's Acquisition Authority: Not from Article 39(b), but from eminent domain and Entry 42 of List III.
- Property Classification as Private: Depends on nature, scarcity, impact, and concentration of resources in private hands.
- Flexibility in Economic Policies: Constitution supports adaptable economic policies.
- Validity of Article 31C: Still valid as held in Kesavananda Bharati case.

- Balancing Public Welfare with Private Property Rights: It involves ensuring societal needs are met while respecting individual ownership (property rights under Article 300A) and rights (equality under Article 14).
 - Also applied the Public Trust Doctrine, mandating responsible resource management for the public good.
- Limits of Eminent Domain: Broader application of this doctrine in land acquisition was questioned.

Evolution of Right to Property

- Originally: Fundamental Right under Articles 19(1)(f) and 31.
- 25th Amendment (1971): Introduced Article 31C, protecting laws under DPSP from fundamental rights challenges.
- Post- 44th Amendment (1978): Right to property became a constitutional right under Article 300A.

Doctrine of Eminent Domain: Allows government to take private property for public use with conditions:

- Public Use: Must serve a public purpose.
- Just Compensation: Fair payment required.
- Due Process: Owners must be notified and have rights to contest.
- Government Authority: Only government or authorized agencies can exercise this power.

Public Trust Doctrine: Ensures state manages natural resources responsibly

- State as Trustee: Manages resources for public benefit (in T.N. Godavarman v. Union of India, the Supreme Court affirmed)
- Citizens as Beneficiaries: Resources used sustainably for all, including future generations.

Implications

- Legislative Impact: Could affect future property laws, land reforms, and welfare programs.
- Economic Reforms: Promotes market-oriented economy by restricting state acquisition powers.
- Political Debates: May affect political agendas on land and property rights.
- Judicial Role: Strengthens scrutiny over government actions concerning property rights.

Conclusion

The ruling clarifies that labeling private property as a "material resource" requires case-by-case analysis, urging government actions to respect constitutional rights and resource management principles.

1.8. INTERNAL EMERGENCY

Why in the News?

The union cabinet passed a resolution on the observance of 50 years since the proclamation of Internal Emergency on June 25, 1975.

About Emergency

- Definition: Emergency involves suspension of democratic rights, with the central government assuming control over states.
- Purpose: To protect sovereignty, unity, integrity, security, democratic system, and the Constitution.

Reasons for Imposing Internal Emergency (1975–77)

- Economic Context: Inflation surged by 23% in 1973 and 30% in 1974, causing public hardship.
- Gujarat and Bihar Movements: Student protests in these states significantly impacted state and national politics.
- Judicial Conflicts: Tensions with the judiciary, including the appointment of Justice A.N. Ray as Chief Justice, fueled disputes.

Implications/Criticism of Internal Emergency (1975–77)

- Political Impact:
 - Civil Liberties Suspended: Fundamental Rights were curtailed, newspapers faced pre-censorship, the Press Council was abolished, and journalists/activists were jailed.
 - Centralization of Power: Federal powers were suspended, concentrating authority in the Union government (Prime Minister's Office). The 42nd Amendment Act, 1976 extended Lok Sabha's term from 5 to 6 years.
 - Crackdown on Dissent: Opposition leaders were detained under the Maintenance of Internal Security Act, 1971 (MISA).
- Social Impact:
 - Misuse of Power: Widespread torture, custodial deaths, and forced slum clearances displaced thousands without resettlement plans.
 - Banned Organizations: Groups like Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh and Jamaat-e-Islami were banned for potential threats to social harmony.
 - Forced Sterilizations: Population control measures violated personal autonomy and reproductive rights.
- Institutional Impact:
 - Judicial Independence: Judges perceived as unsupportive were sidelined, and the 42nd Amendment Act, 1976 limited judicial review.
 - Erosion of Trust: Arbitrary use of power undermined public trust in institutions.

Changes Post-Emergency (44th Amendment Act, 1978)

- Written Approval: Emergency proclamation requires written Cabinet advice to the President.
 - Also, the phrase internal disturbance as the ground for declaration of internal emergency was replaced with armed rebellion.
- Fundamental Rights: Articles 20 (protection against conviction) and 21 (right to life and liberty) remain enforceable during emergencies. Right to property was removed as a fundamental right and made a constitutional right under Article 300A.
- Lok Sabha Term: Restored to 5 years from 6 years (Articles 83, 172).
- Removal of Article 275A: Eliminated Union's power to deploy forces for law and order in states.
- Judicial Review: Supreme Court to decide disputes regarding President or Vice-President Elections.

Conclusion

The Emergency's suppression of dissent and civil liberties highlights the need for citizens to protect democracy. Strengthening checks and balances is essential to prevent power concentration and uphold democratic principles.

1.9. COMPARISON OF CONSTITUTION

1.9.1. USA PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION

Why in the News?

Recently, U.S. Presidential election was conducted through the Electoral College system.

Comparison of USA and Indian Presidential Elections

Parameters	USA	India
Composition of Electoral Members	Electoral College with 538 electors Electors chosen by state voters, vary by state's Congressional representation. Requires 270 votes for presidency.	Electoral College includes elected members of both Houses of Parliament and State Legislative Assemblies (SLAs). Excludes nominated members from both House and SLAs

Governing Act/Rules	Decentralized; each state has its own election rules.	Governed by the Presidential and Vice-Presidential Elections Act, 1952 .
Nomination Process	Candidates gain nominations via primaries and caucuses.	Nomination requires 50 electors as proposers and 50 as seconders.
Election Methods	Mostly winner-take-all system, except in Maine and Nebraska. Presidency can be elected without a popular vote majority (e.g., Trump, 2016).	Uses Proportional Representation by single transferable vote, secret ballot. Needs over 50% of votes to win.
Frequency of Election	Every 4 years on a fixed schedule.	Every 5 years, barring exceptions.
Running Mate	President chooses a Vice-Presidential running mate.	Separate election for Vice President.

1.9.2. INDIA AND FRANCE

Why in the News?

The French government recently collapsed after the French Prime Minister was ousted in a no-confidence vote.

Similarities between the Constitution of India and France

- Core Ideals: Both constitutions enshrine liberty, equality, and fraternity, inspired by the French Revolution.
- Popular Sovereignty: Both nations grant universal adult franchise to citizens.
- Bicameral Parliament:
 - France: The National Assembly (Lower House) is elected by direct universal suffrage for five years; the Senate (Upper House) is elected indirectly, renewed by half every three years.
 - India: Similar bicameral structure with Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha.
- Emergency Provisions: Both constitutions include provisions for declaring emergencies.

Contrasting Features of Indian and French Polity

Features	India	France
Federalism	• India is federal in structure with unitary features.	• France is a unitary State organised on a decentralized basis.
Form of Government	• Parliamentary System: President is ceremonial head of state & Prime minister is head of government.	• Semi-Presidential System: The President (directly elected) holds substantial power and a Prime minister manages day-to-day affairs.
President	• The President is elected indirectly for a 5-year term without any cap on number of terms .	• The President is elected by universal direct suffrage & five-year term is renewable only once .
Secularism	• Indian secularism is characterized by positive secularism , which emphasizes equal respect for all religions . It allows for principled state intervention in all religions .	• Enforces a strict separation between church & state , reflecting a more rigid approach to secularism that prohibits any state involvement in religious matters .
Referendum	• Indian Constitution does not explicitly provide for referendums.	• French Constitution explicitly provides for referendums .
Justice System	• Integrated judicial system: Higher court decisions bind lower courts; appellate system exists.	• Divided judicial system: Legal jurisdictions handle disputes between individuals, while administrative jurisdictions address disputes between citizens and public authorities.

2. ISSUES AND CHALLENGES PERTAINING TO THE FEDERAL STRUCTURE

2.1. FISCAL FEDERALISM AT A GLANCE

2.2. STATES' DEMAND FOR AUTONOMY

Why in the News?

The Tamil Nadu government has formed a high-level committee headed by former Supreme Court judge Justice Kurian Joseph to suggest ways to strengthen State autonomy and federalism.

Mandate of the Committee

- Review constitutional, legal, and policy aspects of Centre-State relations, Suggest ways to restore powers shifted from the State List to the Concurrent List etc.

Federal Scheme of the Indian Constitution

- Union of states, with no right to secede for the states from the Union.
- Single constitution, single citizenship, common all-India services, common election commission and a single unified judiciary.
- Division of Legislative Powers under Article 246 enumerated in the 7th Schedule.
- Indian federalism has often been characterised as quasi-federal: stronger Centre having more power than States.

Committees related to Centre State relations

- Rajamannar Committee (1969): Appointed by the Tamil Nadu Government, it recommended for a High Power Commission to be constituted for the redistribution of the three lists.
- Anandpur Sahib Resolution (1973): Demanded Centre's powers to be restricted only to defence, foreign affairs, communication, currency, etc., with all other powers vested in the states.
- West Bengal Memorandum (1977): Demanded the removal of Article 356 (President's Rule) and the inclusion of the word "Federal" in the Constitution.

Why India Adopted Centralised Federalism?

- Safeguard Unity and Integrity of India as legacy of partition created a general fear of fissiparous tendencies.
- Ensuring equitable distribution of wealth and development between rich and poor states.
- Promoting core constitutional values of justice, parliamentary democracy, liberty, etc., that can be extended through strong centre.
- Promoting uniformity of Laws.

Key Issues Highlighting the Erosion of States' Autonomy

- Central interference in subjects under the State List
 - E.g. The three central farm laws were passed on subjects (agriculture and markets) that are primarily in the State List
- Centralization of Fiscal Powers: Limited taxation powers under GST, Delays in tax devolution and cuts in grants-in-aid.
- Uniform Policies Ignoring State Diversity: Tamil Nadu's opposition to the three-language policy demands.
- Weak Institutional Checks: Infrequent meetings of the Inter-State Council (Article 263), Governor's delays in assenting to State bills.
- Increasing instances of Centralisation: E.g., the improper use of assenting powers of the Governor in Tamil Nadu under Article 200, West Bengal opposed Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) investigations without state consent, etc.

Key Initiatives to Improve Centre-State Relations

- Inter-State Council (Article 263): To promote coordination between Centre and States.
- Replacement of Planning Commission: NITI Aayog promotes cooperative federalism with more state participation.
- Tax Devolution Increased: 14th Finance Commission raised states' share of central taxes from 32% to 42%.
- GST Council: A joint forum (Article 279A) with members from both Centre and States to decide GST policies.
- Fewer Centrally Sponsored Schemes (CSS): Reduced from 130 to 75, aiming for 50.

Ways for Effectively Addressing the Demand for State Autonomy

- Implementing Sarkaria Commission's (1983) key recommendations.
 - Shift all residuary powers (except taxation) to the Concurrent List, Union must consult States before legislating on Concurrent List subjects, etc.

- Promoting Equitable Development: As recommended by the Punchhi Commission (2007), increased financial transfers to underdeveloped States, focus on boosting physical and human infrastructure, etc.
- Use Inter-State Council: For both collective and individual State consultations (Venkatachaliah Commission).
- Promote coordination and policy consensus: Through, Zonal Councils, GST Council, NITI Aayog, and other cooperative platforms.

Conclusion

As Annadurai said in 1967, “Through mutual goodwill and understanding we should forge a fraternal and beneficial nexus.”

2.3. DEMAND FOR NEW STATES

Why in the News?

June 2, 2024 marks the ten years of formation of Telangana State.

Procedure for Formation of New States

- Article 3: Empowers Parliament to form new states, alter boundaries, or rename existing states through ordinary legislation (simple majority).
- Presidential Recommendation: A bill requires the President’s recommendation for introduction in Parliament.
- Consultation with State Legislatures: The President refers the bill to the concerned state legislature for views within a specified time.

Factors Driving Demand for New States in Post-Independence India

- Linguistic Diversity: Language has fueled demands, e.g., Maharashtra and Gujarat (1960).
- Regional Disparities: Underdevelopment drives demands, e.g., Vidarbha in Maharashtra.
- Cultural Identity: Ethnic groups seek to preserve distinct identities, e.g., Bodoland in Assam, based on unique tribal culture.
- Administrative Efficiency: Smaller states are seen to improve governance, e.g., demand for Harit Pradesh from Uttar Pradesh.

State Reorganization Commissions/Committees

- S.K. Dhar Commission (1948): Advocated reorganization based on administrative convenience, not language.
- JVP Committee (1948): Rejected language as a basis for reorganization.
- Fazl Ali Commission (1953): Recommended reorganization based on Unity and security of the country; Linguistic and cultural homogeneity; Financial, economic, and administrative considerations; Welfare and national development;
 - Proposed 14 states and 6 Union Territories, implemented via the Constitution (7th Amendment) Act, 1956.

Judicial Pronouncement related to Reorganisation of State

Berubari Union case, 1960: SC held that power of Parliament to diminish the area of State (under Article 3) does not cover cession of Indian Territory to a foreign country.

- Indian Territory can be ceded to a foreign state only by amending Constitution under Article 368.
- Consequently, 9th Constitutional Amendment Act (CAA), 1960 was enacted to transfer certain territory to Pakistan

Creation of New States

Arguments in Favor	Arguments Against
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Administrative Efficiency: Enhances resource utilization, e.g., Telangana's paddy production rose from 4.57 million metric tonnes (2015) to over 20 million metric tonnes (2023). • Innovation: Smaller states enable governance experiments, e.g., Sikkim's organic farming success inspired Kerala's Organic Farming Mission (2023). • Trade: Smaller states like Uttarakhand and Goa trade more than larger states (Economic Survey 2016-17). • Better Development: Reduces regional disparities, e.g., Uttarakhand's multidimensional poverty dropped from 17.67% (2015-16) to 9.67% (2019-21). 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Economic Strain: High costs for new state infrastructure, e.g., Andhra Pradesh's new capital, Amravati, require ~Rs. 40,000 crore. • Resource Allocation: Division of resources like water or minerals causes disputes, e.g., Krishna River water sharing between Andhra Pradesh and Telangana. • Boundary Disputes: New boundaries create tensions, e.g., Belagavi dispute between Karnataka and Maharashtra. • Pandora's Box: New states may trigger further statehood demands.

Way Ahead

- Development: Promote equitable development within existing states to address disparities and reduce statehood demands.
- Expert Committee: Form a committee with stakeholders to assess demands and impacts of new states.
- Economic Viability: Ensure new states can generate at least 60% of their expenditure from inception.
- Clear Guidelines: Establish objective criteria focusing on economic and social viability, avoiding political motivations.

Conclusion

While new states may enhance administrative efficiency and promote regional development, they also risk creating economic strain, inter-state disputes, and a proliferation of similar demands. Hence, state reorganization must strike a balance between aspiration and administrative practicality.

2.4. OFFICE OF GOVERNOR AT A GLANCE

Office of Governor

The Governor is the constitutional head of a state in India, appointed by the President to represent the Union in states.

Constitutional Provisions related to Governor

Article 153: Establishes the office of Governor for each state (some Governors oversee multiple states, e.g., Union Territories).	Article 163: Governor acts on aid/advice of Council of Ministers, except in discretionary powers.	Article 200: Governor's assent to state bills (can withhold or refer to President)	Article 213: Power to promulgate ordinances during assembly recess	Article 356: Recommends President's Rule in case of constitutional breakdown in the state
---	---	--	---	---

Executive	Legislative	Judicial	Discretionary Powers	Financial
Appoints Chief Minister, Council of Ministers, Advocate General, and State Election Commissioner; oversees state administration	Summons/dissolves state assembly, addresses sessions, gives assent to bills, reserves bills for President's consideration	Grants pardons, reprieves, or commutations (Article 161); appoints judges to subordinate courts in consultation with High Court	Acts without ministerial advice in specific cases, e.g., appointing Chief Minister post-elections, recommending President's Rule, reserving bills	Ensures state budget presentation; approves money bills

Judicial Pronouncements related to office of governor

Shamsher Singh vs. State of Punjab (1974)	S.R. Bommai vs. Union of India (1994)	State of Tamil Nadu v. The Governor of Tamil Nadu (2025)
Clarified Governor acts on aid/advice of Council of Ministers, except in limited discretionary areas.	Restricted misuse of Article 356; President's Rule subject to judicial review; Governor's report must be objective.	Supreme Court emphasized Governors' neutrality in giving assent to state bills in a time bound manner.

2.4.1. ASSENT TO STATE BILLS

Why in the News?

Recently, the Supreme Court (SC) in the State of Tamil Nadu v. The Governor of Tamil Nadu issued directions to ensure the timely approval of Bills passed by the State Legislature.

More on the News

The Supreme Court exercised its inherent powers under Article 142 of the Constitution, which empowers the SC to pass a decree/order necessary for doing complete justice.

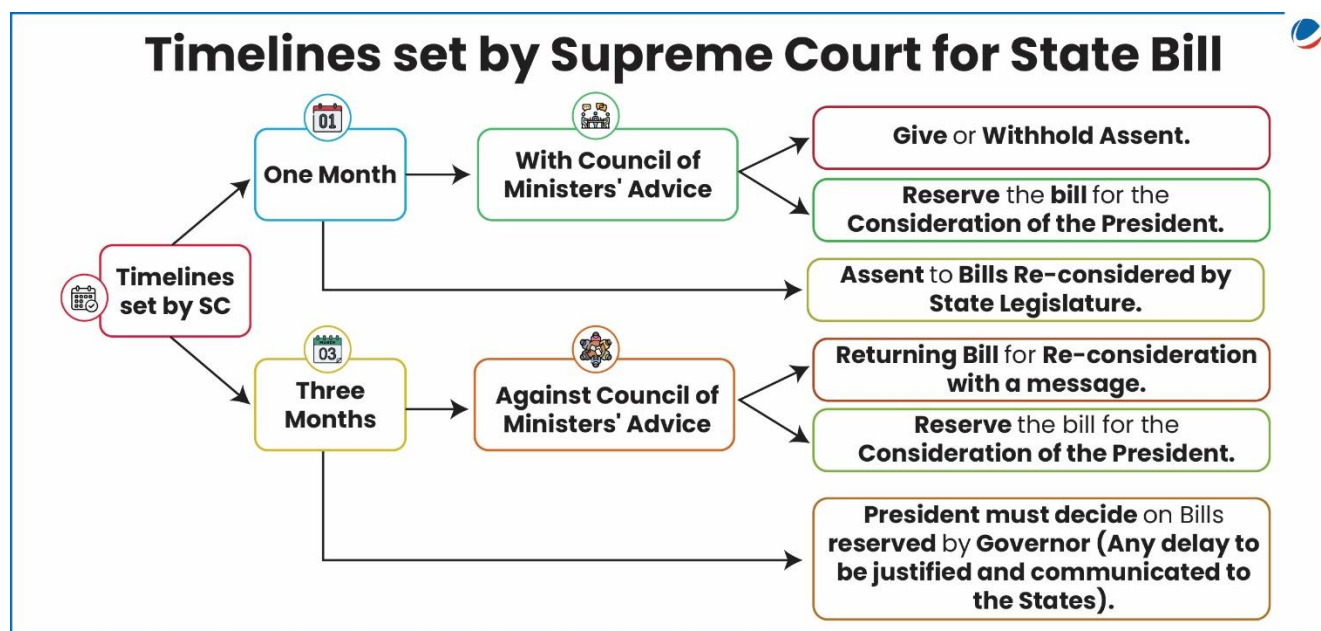

Constitutional Provisions regarding assents to the state bill

Governor can (Article 200)	For bills reserved by Governor, the President (Article 201) can
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Grant Assent. Withhold Assent. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Grant Assent. Withhold Assent.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Return for Reconsideration (except Money Bills) – If the legislature passes it again, the Governor must give assent. • Reserve for President's Consideration. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Return for Reconsideration – Legislature must act within 6 months; after reconsideration, President can still accept or reject.
Unlike the Governor, the President is not obligated to give assent to a reconsidered bill.

Key Highlights of the Judgement

- Inaction is unconstitutional: There is no Pocket or Absolute Veto available to the governor or President.
 - In case the Governor/President exhibits inaction, the State Government could seek a writ of mandamus from a competent court.
- Governor can't reserve a re-enacted Bill for President's Assent: The Bill can be reserved for the President's assent in the first instance itself.
 - Exception is when the bill presented in the second round is materially different from that in the first instance.
- Prescribed timeline for assent of Bills

- Governor Lacks Absolute Discretion Under Article 200 and has to mandatorily abide by the advice tendered by the Council of Ministers except in certain situations, such as:
 - State Bills that would derogate the powers of the High Court, relating to a subject enumerated in the Concurrent List etc.
- Discretionary power under Article 200 is subject to judicial review: Withholding assent or reserving a Bill using the Governor's discretion or the President withholding assent, can be challenged in the Supreme Court.
- President should consult the Supreme Court on Bills reserved for unconstitutionality (Article 143).

Conclusion

Supreme Court's intervention reaffirms constitutional accountability and ensures smoother legislative functioning in states. This judgment is a step toward restoring the balance between constitutional functionaries and promoting cooperative federalism.

3. PARLIAMENT AND STATE LEGISLATURES: STRUCTURE AND FUNCTIONING

3.1. DECLINE IN PARLIAMENTARY PRODUCTIVITY

Why in the News?

Speaker of the Lok Sabha has condemned the deliberate parliamentary disruptions as undemocratic.

More on the News

- 17th Lok Sabha functioning at 88% and Rajya Sabha at 73% of the scheduled time (PRS Report).
- In the 18th Lok Sabha (Winter 2024), productivity further dropped to 54.5% and 40% in Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha respectively.
- Status of State Legislatures (2025 PRS Report)
 - Declined in Average Number of Sitting Days: from 28 in 2017 to 20 in 2024. 11 states met the requirement under Article 174 (to meet at least once every 6 months) through short sessions (for 1 or 2 days).
 - Limited Debate: 51% Bills passed in a day; only 4% sent to committees.
 - Absence of Speaker & Deputy Speaker (Article 178): As of April 2025, 8 states/UTs had no Deputy Speaker.
 - Delay in Assent to Bills: In 2024, 18% of Bills took over 3 months to receive assent.

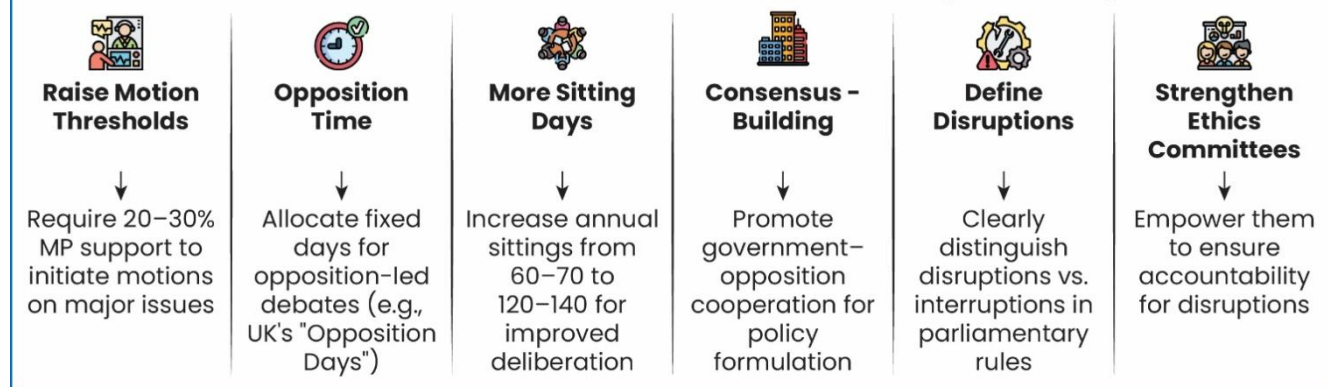

Reasons for Parliamentary Disruption:

- Substantive Reasons:
 - Disruptions arise from controversial national or regional issues dominating public attention. E.g., Hindenburg controversy.
 - Opposition Grandstanding: Opposition disrupts proceedings to delay or block proposals, shifting focus from debate to publicity.
 - Anti-defection law (10th Schedule, introduced by the 52nd Constitutional Amendment) forces MPs to follow party whips, restricting debate and pressuring them to join disruptions.
- Structural Reasons:
 - Increasing number of political parties reduce debate time, causing disruptions over unlisted issues.
 - Parliamentary framework lacks defined time limits for various business leading to delays

Implications of Parliamentary Disruption

- Disruptions reduce debate time, undermining Parliament's ability to hold the government accountable and pass laws, resulting in hasty decisions.
- Continuous disruptions lower public trust in Parliament, as MPs focus on blocking proceedings instead of solving key issues.
- Each minute of Parliament costs ₹2.5 lakh. The 2021 logjam alone cost taxpayers ₹133 crore.

Measures to address Parliamentary Disruptions

Conclusion

National Commission to Review the Working of the Constitution (NCRWC) has recommended minimum number of sittings in a year for Lok Sabha (120), Rajya Sabha (100), state legislatures (smaller-50, larger-90).

As Ambedkar warned, even a sound Constitution is futile if those who work it act irresponsibly. The recurring decline in productivity signals the need for deeper parliamentary reforms — including a code of conduct, more sitting days, and rules to distinguish disruptions from interruptions.

3.2. COALITION GOVERNMENT

Why in the News?

Recently concluded 2024 General Elections of Lok Sabha resulted in formation of a coalition government at the centre as no political party got a clear majority in the Lower House of the Parliament.

About Coalition Government

- It refers to a political arrangement where multiple parties collaborate to form a government when no single party secures a clear majority in the legislature.
- Factors contributing for Coalition Government in India: Multi-party system, regional diversity and rise of state parties, anti-incumbency factors, etc.
- Coalition governments in India can be formed through two main routes:
 - Pre-election alliances: Parties form coalitions before elections, presenting a united front to voters.
 - Post-election coalitions: Parties negotiate to form a government after election results, often when no pre-election alliance gains a majority.

Coalition Governments in India

Significance of Coalition Government

- Broader Representation: Represents diverse interests and regions, fostering inclusive policies.
- Checks and Balances: Partners curb authoritarianism and hasty decisions.

- Consensus Building: Negotiation and compromise lead to widely accepted policies.
- Role of Lok Sabha: Enhances debates and government accountability.
- Cooperative Federalism: Regional parties increase state bargaining power and decentralization.

Challenges

- Political Instability: Divergent interests cause disagreements, e.g., NDA government's fall in 1998 after 13 months.
- Policy Paralysis: Slow decisions due to consensus needs, e.g., Left parties' withdrawal from UPA-I over Indo-US nuclear deal in 2008.
- Myopic Decision-Making: Frequent coalition shifts hinder long-term strategies.
- Compromise on Ideologies: Parties dilute core beliefs to sustain coalitions.
- Regionalism: Regional parties prioritize state-specific benefits.
- Foreign Policy: Coalition dynamics affect decisions, e.g., stalled Teesta Water Agreement in 2011.

Way Forward

- Political Stability: Adopt constructive vote of no-confidence, requiring simultaneous alternative leader proposal (NCRWC).
 - Mandate fresh elections if coalition parties realign mid-term (ARC-II).
- Election of Prime Minister: Establish mechanism for electing Lok Sabha Leader as Prime Minister, alongside Speaker election (NCRWC).
- Transparency: Require regular public reports on Common Minimum Program progress and coalition impact assessments for major policies.
- Long-Term Strategies: Leverage Inter-State Council and NITI Aayog for non-partisan national policy formulation.

Conclusion

In a landscape marked by regional plurality, coalitions serve as instruments of cooperative federalism, ensuring equitable power-sharing and decentralised governance, echoing Ambedkar's vision of "deliberative democracy over majoritarian rule."

3.3. ANTI-DEFECTION LAW

Why in the News?

Recently, the Supreme Court warned the Speaker of Telangana's Legislative Assembly against delaying action under Anti-defection law.

About Anti Defection Law

- Introduced through 52nd Amendment Act, 1985, adding the Tenth Schedule to the Constitution to prevent political defections.
- Grounds for Disqualification: For a Member of The House voluntarily giving up party membership; defying party whip during voting.

Judicial pronouncement related to Anti defection law

Kihoto Hollohan v. Zachillhu (1992): Courts should have the power of judicial review to intervene if the Speaker delays action.

Karnataka MLAs' disqualification case (2020): Consider transferring disqualification powers from the Speaker to an independent tribunal.

Arguments in Favour of Anti-Defection Law	Arguments Against Anti-Defection Law
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Boosts Stability: Stops elected officials from switching parties, preventing government collapse. • Curb Corruption: Prevents unethical practices like buying legislators (Horse trading). • Respects Voters: Upholds the public's choice of party and its ideology. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Limits Free Will: Forces legislators to follow party lines, not their conscience (violates Article 19). • Against Democratic Ethos: Turns representatives of people into party puppets. • Hinders Change: Blocks innovative ideas and dissent on the floor of the House.

Conclusion

In a parliamentary democracy, while party discipline is essential, blind adherence to the whip undermines deliberative democracy. Thus, reforms like time-bound decisions and independent adjudication are vital to restore credibility to the anti-defection regime.

3.4. DEPUTY SPEAKER OF THE LOK SABHA

Why in the News?

Long term vacancy since 2019 to the office of Deputy Speaker (DS) points to Constitutional anomaly.

About DS of the Lok Sabha

- Background: The office emerged in 1921 under Government of India Act, 1919.
- Election (Article 93): As per a long-standing convention, the post of DS has been offered to the Opposition.
- Resignation and Removal: Article 94 deals with vacation, resignation and removal (by a resolution passed by a majority of all then members of the House).
 - Speaker may resign by submitting a resignation to the DS and vice-versa.
- Duties: As per Article 95, DS performs the duties of Speaker in case of vacancy, absence, etc.

Importance of the office of DS

- Constitutional Imperative: It is not merely ceremonial as the Constitution places it on an equal footing with the Speaker.
- Essential for continuity, stability, and institutional balance: As the DS acts as a second in command in case of emergency.
- Legislative Responsibilities: DS chairs key sessions, leads committees, and manages sensitive debates requiring neutrality and authority.

Conclusion

A specific deadline (E.g., 60 days of the first sitting of the new Lok Sabha) or a statutory mechanism could be introduced to ensure appointment within a timeframe.

3.5. REPRESENTATION OF WOMEN IN LEGISLATURE

Why in the News?

Election of 74 women to 18th Lok Sabha (LS) is a slight dip in women representation as 78 women were elected to 17th LS.

Status of women representation in Legislature

- 9.7% of 797 women contestants won in 18th LS elections while in 17th LS elections, 10.74% of 726 women contestants won.

- Women's representation in LS increased from 5% in first LS to its highest in 17th LS (14.4%).
- Presently, women members constitute 14.05% of Rajya Sabha members.
- Globally, share of women in national parliaments is 26.9%.
 - Rawanda is the only country in the world with majority of women parliamentarians (more than 60%).

Significance of women representation:

- Women legislators perform better in their constituencies on economic indicators than their male counterparts (As per Essex study, 2019).
- Accounting for around 50% population, legislative representation is fundamental to political empowerment.
- Women are less likely to be criminal and corrupt, more efficacious, and less vulnerable to political opportunism (As per 2018 Oxford study).

Challenges to women's legislative representation:

- Societal Prejudices, male dominated political structures, and family obligations.
- Structural disadvantages: Election campaigns are costly, time-consuming and are marred by inappropriate commenting, hate speeches, abusive threats and muscle power.
- Internalised patriarchy: Women themselves are often influenced by patriarchal societal norms. Eg. Sarpanch pati

Conclusion

Democratic ethos demands not only universal suffrage but also equitable representation, thus, ensuring women's presence in legislatures is both a political necessity and a constitutional imperative.

3.6. PRIVATE MEMBERS' BILL

Why in the News?

As per PRS Legislative Research report, the space for private members' bill has declined in both the Houses of the Parliament in recent years.

What is a Private Member's Bill?

A Member of Parliament, other than a Minister (both elected and nominated) is known as a Private Member. A bill initiated by any such Member is called a Private Member's Bill (PMB). Drafting of such a bill is responsibility of the Member introducing it.

What is the significance of PMBs?

- Policy Innovation: MPs introduce fresh ideas, e.g., Right to Disconnect Bill (2019).
- Reform Potential: Catalyse legal reform, e.g., Transgender Rights Bill (2014).

- Independent Voice: Encourage views beyond party lines.
- Accountability: Offer policy alternatives to check government.

Why are PMBs in Decline?

- Disruptions: Frequent adjournments limit PMB discussions; 17th Lok Sabha saw only 16 discussed out of 1,434 introduced.
- Procedural Hurdles: Limited time (only 2–3 hours weekly). Speaker/Chairman’s discretionary power to admit or reject bills can be influenced by political considerations.
- Resource Gap: MPs lack expert support.
- Low Success Rate: Only 14 PMBs passed since independence.
- Political Apathy: Government sidelines PMBs.

Way Forward

- Streamlining Procedures: Allocate fixed, uninterrupted time for PMB discussions, digital tracking of such bills, etc.
- Research Support: Establish a dedicated research unit to assist MPs in drafting robust bills.
- Institutionalised Mechanism: Parliament can introduce a dedicated review committee for screening Bills for quality, relevance, and constitutionality.
 - UK’s 10-Minute Rule Model can also be adopted where MPs can introduce short bills with brief speeches to make their case for a new Bill.

Significance of New Criminal Laws

- Justice Over Punishment: New laws shift from colonial punishment to a justice-based system that focuses on victims' rights, timely trials etc.
- Fair and Transparent Process: Digital tools like e-FIRs, forensic evidence.
- Indian Values at the Core: Rooted in Dharma and Nyaya, the laws reflect Indian ethos, empowering citizens and combining tradition with modern justice.

Conclusion

Enacted 160 years after the IPC, the new laws—framed by a democratically elected government—aim to shift focus from punishment to justice (Nyaya), with provisions like forensic integration and fixed timelines to expedite trials. Together, they offer a chance to decolonise and modernise the criminal justice system, provided there is regular monitoring and periodic review to uphold constitutional values.

4.1.2. FREE LEGAL AID

Why in the News?

The Supreme Court (SC) issued directions for Legal Services Authorities (LSAs) to ensure access to free legal aid for prison inmates.

SC Directions to ensure access to free legal aid for prison inmates

- Effective implementation of SOP-2022 with periodic upgradation.

- Periodic reporting to be submitted by the DLSAs to the SLSAs

Free Legal Aid in India

- Legal aid in India refers to the provision of free legal services to individuals who are unable to afford legal representation or access to the justice system.
 - Legal aid can include legal advice, representation in court proceedings, mediation, negotiation, and alternative dispute resolution mechanisms.
- Constitutional provisions: Articles 21, 39A

Hussainara Khatoon v. State of Bihar (1979): Affirmed the right to a speedy trial under Article 21, emphasizing access to legal aid.

Issues with access to free legal aid

- Lack of awareness in under trial prisoners of their rights
- Poor quality of legal aid
- Insufficient funding
- Delays and inefficient delivery of legal aid due to complex eligibility criteria and bureaucratic hurdles
- Barriers to access for marginalized communities (Geographical distance, language barriers)

Government Steps

- Designing Innovative Solutions for Holistic Access to Justice in India (DISHA) scheme: To strengthen pre-litigation mechanism.
- Tele-Law: To facilitate delivery of legal advice through an expert panel of lawyers – stationed at the SLSA.
- Nyaya Bandhu (Pro Bono Legal Services) programme : Through this interested lawyers can register themselves to volunteer pro bono services for the underprivileged litigants.
- Nyaya Mitra programme: To facilitate disposal of 10 to 15 years old cases (both civil and criminal cases) pending in High Courts and Subordinate Courts.
- Lok Adalat: One of the alternative dispute redressal mechanisms, where disputes/cases pending in the court of law or at pre-litigation stage are settled/ compromised amicably.

Way forward

- Policy implementation: increasing funding for legal aid, simplifying eligibility criteria, etc.
- Infrastructure and Resources: Building capacities of LSAs
- Awareness generation: For example, Haq Humara bhi toh hai@75 campaign in 2022
- Leveraging Technology: E.g. Prison records made available digitally
- Quality legal aid: competence and due diligence

Conclusion

Effective legal aid is not merely a service but a critical component of good governance — it enhances procedural justice, reduces pendency, and ensures that no citizen is denied justice merely because of economic or social disadvantage.

4.2. PRISON REFORMS

Why in the News?

Ministry of Home Affairs amended the Model Prison Manual, 2016, and Model Prisons and Correctional Services Act, 2023, to tackle caste-based discrimination in prisons nationwide.

More on the News

- Amendments align with the SC's ruling in Sukanya Santha vs. UoI & Others (2024), addressing caste-based discrimination.

Key Amendments

- Prison authorities must prevent caste-based discrimination, classification, or segregation in duty or work allocation.
 - Caste discrimination violates Articles 14 (equality), 15 (non-discrimination), and 17 (untouchability abolition).
- The 'Prohibition of Employment as Manual Scavengers and their Rehabilitation Act, 2013' is binding in prisons.
 - Manual scavenging or hazardous sewer/septic tank cleaning in prisons are banned.

Key features of Model Prisons and Correctional Services Act, 2023

- Specialized Jails: Establishes high-security, open, and semi-open jails.
- Legal Aid & Incentives: Provides parole, furlough, and early release for good conduct.
 - Introduced the use of electronic monitoring technology as a condition for granting prison leaves for prisoners.
- Rehabilitation: Focuses on vocational training and skill development for reintegration.
- Inclusive Accommodation: Ensures separate facilities for women and transgender prisoners etc.

Need for Prison Reforms

- Colonial Era Law: Supreme Court in Ramamurthy vs state of Karnataka case 1996 emphasised need to enact new Prison law to replace Prisons Act, 1894.
- Rising Prison Occupancy: As per Prisons in India 2024 report by Supreme Court of India, total inmates reached 5.73 lakh (131.4%) as of December 31, 2022.
 - Out of this, 75.8% were reported as undertrial prisoners.
 - Bail rejection rate is high (32.3% in Sessions Courts and 16.2% in Magisterial Courts).
- Inhumane Conditions: Cramped cells lack proper sanitation, and inadequate medical care.
 - Less than 40% of prisons provide sanitary napkins; only 18% have exclusive women's facilities.
- Rights of women prisoners: State jail manuals do not explicitly provide for the right to reproductive choice for a woman prisoner.
- Prisoners sentenced to death: Inordinate delays in death penalty proceedings with the execution rate of just 0.3% in the period 2006 to 2022 (NCRB).
- Discrimination: Division of prison work based on caste, prevalence of manual scavenging inside prisons, classification of prisoners based social status, etc.

Measures taken for Prison Reform

- Fast Track Courts to expedite trial of pending cases.
- National Human Rights Commission to protect basic rights of prisoners.
- Model Prison Manual 2016 provides detailed guidelines on facilities which may be provided to under trial inmates.

 - Legal Framework: Governed by the Prison Act, 1894 and state prison manuals.
 - Centre's Model Act of 2023 provides guidance to states to incorporate best modern practices related to prisons.
- Existing Provisions for Prisoners
 - India
 - > Section 479 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS), 2023: Provides for release of an undertrial prisoner on bail on undergoing detention for a period extending up to one half of the maximum period of imprisonment specified for an offence under any law.

- > Plea Bargaining (Section 289 to 300) in BNSS: Enables pre-trial negotiation between the defendant and the prosecution.
- Global
 - > Bangkok Rules: Adopted in 2010 by UN General Assembly, provides for the rules for the treatment of women prisoners and non-custodial measures for women offenders.
 - > Nelson Mandela Rules: Adopted in 2015 by the UN General Assembly, provides for Standard Minimum Rules for the Treatment of Prisoners.

Conclusion

Prison system in India must transition from colonial notions of punishment to a rehabilitative and rights-based approach, where the aim is reformation, not retribution — aligning with constitutional values under Articles 14, 19, and 21.

4.3. JUDICIAL REFORMS

4.3.1. JUDICIAL ACCOUNTABILITY

Why in the News?

The discovery of wads of cash at the residence of Delhi High Court judge has raised concerns regarding accountability in India's higher judiciary.

About Judicial Accountability

- It is defined as the set of mechanisms aimed at making judges and courts personally or institutionally responsible for behaviours and decisions contrary to constitutional or legal standards.
- It improves efficiency and transparency in delivering judgements, ensures faith of citizens in democratic institutions etc.
- Constitution follows principle of separation of power where checks and balances exist on every organ's conduct.
 - However, being the protector of Fundamental Rights, judiciary is required to be independent and outside influence of political and economic entities.
 - Under Article 235, Constitution provides for 'control' of High Court over the subordinate judiciary clearly indicating the provision of an effective mechanism to enforce accountability.

Existing Key Mechanism for Ensuring accountability

- Removal of Judges: Under Articles 124, 217, 218 of the constitution and the Judges Inquiry Act, 1968, a Supreme Court or High Court judge can be removed by the President on grounds of proved misbehaviour or incapacity.
- In-House Mechanism of 1999: Based on two important charters governing judicial ethics— the Restatement of Values of Judicial Life 1997 (Refer box) and the Bangalore Principles of Judicial Conduct 2002.
 - The CJI can receive complaints against the conduct of the Judges of the Supreme Court and the Chief Justice of the High Courts. High Court Chief Justices can handle complaints within their courts.
 - Bangalore Principles of Judicial Conduct: Independence, Integrity, Equality, Impartiality, Propriety, Competence and Diligence.

1997 Restatement of Values of Judicial Life

- Avoid actions that erode people's faith in higher judiciary.
- Must not hear and decide cases where a family member or friend is involved
- Must not publicly express views on political matters that may arise for judicial determination
- Must not accept gifts or hospitality from anyone besides family and friends Must not engage in any trade or business.
- Should not seek any financial benefit connected to her office unless it is clearly available.

Concerns Surrounding Judicial Accountability in India

- Conflict with Judicial Independence: E.g., appointments via collegium system (India is the only country in the world where judges appoint judges)
- Complex Removal Process
- No Mandatory Asset Disclosure Norm: Unlike public servants and elected representatives, judges are not legally bound to publicly declare their assets.
 - However, in April 2025, the Full Court of the Supreme Court had resolved that Judges should make a declaration of their assets on assuming office and whenever any acquisition of a substantial nature is made, to the Chief Justice of India.
- Limited checks and balances: Judiciary self-governs most of its aspects like in-house inquiry of judges.
- Other Provisions Hindering Accountability: Immunity from criminal action, restriction on RTI, etc.

Way Forward to Ensure Judicial Accountability

- Judicial Standards and Accountability Bill: Introduced in 15th Lok Sabha but lapsed due to dissolution of Lok Sabha.
- National Judicial Commission (NJC): Proposed by Law Commission of India reports (80th & 121st) to handle appointments and misconduct investigations. Judicial member and non-Judicial member in NJC.
- Permanent Disciplinary Committee to handle complaints, issuing warnings for minor issues or recommending inquiries for major misconduct.
- Judicial Oversight: A continuous performance evaluation mechanism may be devised for judges.

4.3.2. JUDICIAL VACANCIES

Why in News?

As per the Ministry of Law there are more than 5,600 vacancies (2 in SC, 364 in HCs & 5245 in district courts) in the judiciary in November 2024.

Reason

- Periodic Vacancies: Due to retirement, resignation, demise, elevation of judges, and increase in sanctioned strength of courts.
- Time Consuming Collegium Process: It involves a continuous & collaborative process between Executive & Judiciary which requires consultation & approval from various authorities.
- Other: Delays in examination process regarding judicial appointments at lower courts, low salaries, & workload, can deter talented lawyers from joining the judiciary.

Impact

- Justice Delayed: Over 19,500 & 27 lakh cases are pending in SC & HC respectively.
 - Other reasons for pending cases include inadequate infrastructure, frequent adjournments, absence of strict timelines etc.
- Low judge-to-population ratio leads to the huge work stress on judicial officers, making them prone to making mistakes.
 - In 2002, a direction was passed in All India Judges Association case that by 2007, judge-to-population ratio in trial judiciary should be 50 per million.

Way Forward

- Revisiting National Judicial Appointments Commission (NJAC) framework could provide a balanced approach to judicial appointments, ensuring both independence and accountability.
- All India Judicial Service (AIJS): A centralized recruitment process for district and subordinate courts, similar to the civil services, could attract more talent and ensure uniformity.
- Conducting periodic assessments of judicial strength

4.3.3. WITNESS PROTECTION SCHEME (WPS), 2018

Why in the News?

Highlighting the importance of witnesses as "eyes and ears of justice", the Supreme Court raised concerns over the implementation of the WPS, 2018.

About WPS, 2018

- Scheme was endorsed by the SC in 2018 and made enforceable in all States/UTs.
- Objective: Protection of witnesses based on the threat assessment and protection measures inter alia include protection/change of identity of witnesses, their relocation, etc.
- Provides protection under three categories on the basis of threat:
 - Category A: Threat to the life of a witness or his family.
 - Category B: Threat to safety, reputation or property.
 - Category C: Threat is moderate.
- Provides for a State Witness Protection Fund operated by the Department/Ministry of Home under State/UT Government.

What are the concerns in its implementation?

- Poor Implementation: Many states fail to enforce the scheme effectively due to limited resources (funding & infrastructure), especially in lower courts.
 - The new criminal laws also mandate all State Governments to implement Witness Protection Scheme.
- Narrow Scope: Protection limited to serious crimes, excluding other cases with high risks.
- Witness Intimidation: Witnesses in high-profile cases face severe threats, leading to hostile testimonies.
 - Confidentiality Issues: Weak record management and outdated IT systems risk exposing individuals' whereabouts.
- Needs permanent solution: The scheme is temporary, needing a robust national law.

Conclusion

As Jeremy Bentham noted, "The witnesses are the eyes and ears of justice." Thus, by strengthening the Witness Protection Scheme through increased funding, and improved coordination, fair and fearless trials can be ensured to uphold justice in the country.

4.4. ARTICLE 142

Why in the News?

In State of Tamil Nadu v The Governor of Tamil Nadu, the Supreme Court invoked Article 142 to grant deemed assent to bills that had been pending with the Governor.

About article 142

- Article 142 allows the Supreme Court to pass any decree or make any order as is necessary for doing complete justice in any cause or matter pending before it.
- Constitutional Role: It was meant to serve as an extraordinary remedy, invoked when existing laws are silent or inadequate to ensure justice.
 - However, over time, Article 142 has evolved into a powerful instrument used not just in rare cases, but increasingly in matters involving governance, policy, and institutional dysfunction.

Positive Impacts of Article 142	Issues with of Article 142
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Address urgent issue with legislative vacuum: In Bhanwari Devi and Ors. vs State of Rajasthan (2002), SC provided "Vishaka Guidelines" to address workplace sexual harassment, eventually 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Subjectivity in complete Justice: Court has wide discretion using Article 142, and this allows possibility of its misuse due to absence

resulting in “Prevention of Sexual Harassment Act, 2013”. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Other Examples, Cleaning of Taj Mahal, Release of undertrials, and Union Carbide case. Strengthen Democracy: K.S. Puttaswamy (Privacy) vs. Union of India (2017) established guidelines for safeguarding individual privacy. Provides Checks and Balances: In 2014, SC canceled all but four of the 218 coal block allocations deemed illegal and arbitrary. Address civil rights and social justice issues: In Vineeta Sharma vs. Rakesh Sharma & Ors. (2020), SC addressed conflicting judgments on daughters' coparcenary rights under Hindu Succession Act. Promotes equality: In ‘The Secretary, Ministry of Defense vs. Babita Puniya’ case, SC granted permanent commission to women officers in the Indian Army. 	of standard definition for term “complete justice”. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Encroachment in Legislative and Executive domain: SC's intervention in Karnataka's political crisis with a floor test blurred judiciary-executive lines, sparking concerns of overreach (S.R. Bommai vs. Union of India (1994)). Unaccountability: Article 142 grants judiciary immunity from easy scrutiny or challenge for its decisions. This has been criticised on grounds of separation of powers doctrine. Lack of Consistency: Inconsistent legal rulings under Article 142 complicate litigation planning and operations for individuals and businesses. Undermining Federalism: In the Tamil Nadu case, critics argue that the Court stepped into the Governor's constitutional domain, bypassing the principle of constitutional federalism.

Way Forward

- Defining ‘complete justice’: Clear guidelines/principles can help mitigate misuse of power under the guise of achieving ‘complete justice’.
- Referral to Constitution Benches: All major uses of Article 142 in constitutional matters should be reviewed by a minimum five-judge bench to avoid arbitrariness.
- Promote Judicial Restraint: SC should restrict itself to being a gap-filler, not a policy-maker—consistent with separation of powers.
- Addressing Arbitrariness: Judges should ensure that decisions made under Article 142 are based on relevant facts and considerations.
- Establishing a regulatory framework: To prevent misuse of Article 142, decisions should be subject to scrutiny and accountability, ensuring that all relevant parties are heard before invoking Article 142.

4.5. GRAM NYAYALAYAS

Why in the News?

SC raised concern regarding the feasibility of setting up Gram Nyayalayas (village courts), as mandated by the Gram Nyayalayas Act of 2008.

Key Concern raised by SC

- Establishment of Gram Nyayalayas by States/UTs is mandatory or not: Section 3 of the Act provides that governments “may” constitute Gram Nyayalayas.
- Resource Crunch: State governments, already facing limited resources for regular courts, find it challenging to fund additional gram nyayalayas.
- Rising Burden: They may end up burdening high courts with appeals and writ petitions.

Key Features of Gram Nyayalayas

- Seat: Establish at intermediate level Panchayat or a group of contiguous Panchayats.
 - State government appoints ‘Nyayadhikari’ for each Gram Nyayalaya in consultation with the high court.
- Jurisdiction: Shall be a mobile court, with both civil and criminal jurisdiction.
- Dispute Process: Disputes are to be preferably settled with the help of conciliation.

- Social workers may be appointed as Conciliators.
- They are not bound by the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (replaced by the Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam) but by Principles of Natural Justice.
- Significance: Gram Nyayalayas ensures that opportunities for securing justice are not denied to any citizen by reason of social, economic or other disabilities.

Implementation Status of Gram Nyayalayas

- There was an initial target of around 2,500 gram nyayalayas, however, fewer than 500 have been established, with only 314 currently operational across India.
- States such as Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh and Rajasthan have shown progress, yet other major states, including Uttar Pradesh and Bihar, have seen limited or no implementation.

Initiative to Support Gram Nyayalayas

- Under Gram Nyayalayas scheme (Centrally Sponsored Scheme (CSS)), Union Government provides financial assistance to States to set up Gram Nyayalayas.

Conclusion

To uphold the spirit of Article 39A, Gram Nyayalayas must be backed by political will, fiscal commitment, and administrative clarity, turning vision into reality.

4.6. TRIBUNALS IN INDIA

Why in the News?

The Supreme Court highlighted key issues of Tribunals like appointment of staff and service conditions while hearing a petition challenging constitutional validity of the Tribunal Reforms Act, 2021.

What are Tribunals?

- Tribunals are quasi-judicial bodies established to adjudicate disputes related to specified matters.
- Constitutional Recognition: 42nd Amendment Act of 1976 added a new Part XIV-A to the Constitution, which inserted Articles 323-A and 323-B.
 - Article 323A empowers Parliament to constitute administrative Tribunals (both at the central and state levels) for adjudication of matters related to the recruitment and conditions of service of public servants.
 - Article 323B specifies certain subjects (such as taxation and land reforms) for which Parliament or state legislatures may constitute tribunals by enacting a law.

Key issues in working of Tribunals

- Independence of Tribunals: Executive overpower over selection process, presence of technical members dilutes judicial independence.
- Pendency of cases: E.g., till 2021 central government industrial tribunal cum-labour courts had 7,312 pending cases, and Armed Forces Tribunal had 18,829 pending cases.
- Infrastructural Issues: E.g. Lack of human resources, pending vacancies and poor service conditions.
- Overlapping Jurisdiction: Issue of overlapping cases between regular courts and tribunals creates confusion.
- Fragmented Administrative Control: Over 16 central tribunals operate under different ministries which lead to lack of standardization and functional inconsistencies.

Way Forward

- Enhance Judicial Independence: Ensure selection committees have judicial dominance and protect tribunal members from outside interference.
- Creation of an independent body called National Tribunals Commission (NTC): For the administration of all tribunals in India (recommended under L. Chandra Kumar Case, 1997).

- Timely Appointment and Staffing Improvements: Appoint tribunal staff on deputation basis while on Government service.

4.7. ALTERNATE DISPUTE RESOLUTION AT A GLANCE

Alternate dispute resolution (ADR)

ADR is a process in which disputes are addressed and settled outside of courtroom. It offers to resolve all type of matters including civil, commercial, industrial etc.

Types of ADR

Arbitration: A neutral arbitrator gives a binding decision outside the court. For example, <ul style="list-style-type: none"> › Arbitration Council of India under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. › New Delhi International Arbitration Centre (NDIAC) under the NDIAC Act, 2019 for facilitating institutional arbitration. 	Mediation: A mediator facilitates dialogue to help parties reach a voluntary agreement . <ul style="list-style-type: none"> › Mediation Act, 2023 establishes an institutional legal framework. 	Conciliation: A conciliator actively assists parties in resolving disputes without a binding decision. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> › The Mediation Act, 2023 has incorporated provisions for conciliation as well. 	Negotiation: Parties directly engage to settle the dispute without third-party involvement .	Lok Adalat: Statutory forum for speedy, amicable settlement of disputes with legal backing .

Significance of ADR

Reduces Judicial Burden: India Justice Report (IJR) 2025 noted pending cases have crossed 5 crores.	Cheap and Speedy Justice: Saves on legal fees, court costs, and time of lengthy trials.	Co-operative Problem Solving: Neutral third party aids communication and negotiation impartially.
--	--	--

Issues in Arbitration System

Lack of Diversity: Retired judges dominate arbitrator appointments.	Trust Deficit: Concerns over third-party impartiality persist.	Risk of Error: Informal, binding nature may lead to flawed decisions.	Court Burden Continues: Many awards are challenged, undermining arbitration's purpose. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> › Recently, SC in Gayatri Balasamy v. ISG Novasoft limited courts' power to modify awards (e.g., only in clerical error, under Article 142, etc.)

Way Forward

Broaden Arbitrator Pool: Train and accredit professionals beyond retired judges via ACI.	Ensure Transparency: E.g., disclose arbitrators' affiliations.	Promote Litigation startups: A Chandigarh-based IT startup has come up with an online private digital court 'Jupitice' to resolve commercial and civil cases through various ADR mechanisms.	Speedy Enforcement: Create dedicated High Court benches and allow summary enforcement.	Other Measures: Cap duration/fees, set up regional centres, and raise MSME awareness.
---	---	---	---	--

4.7.1. DRAFT ARBITRATION AND CONCILIATION (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2024

Why in the News?

Government of India invited comments on draft arbitration and conciliation (amendment) bill, 2024, brought to amend Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

More on the News

- Amendment aims to provide boost to institutional arbitration, reduce court intervention in arbitrations and ensuring timely conclusion of arbitration proceedings.

Key Features of draft Arbitration and Conciliation (Amendment) Bill, 2024

- Omission of Conciliation: Amended Act will be called Arbitration Act, 1996 as provisions related to conciliation have been incorporated in Mediation Act 2023.
- Appointing an Emergency Arbitrator: To grant interim measures prior to the constitution of an arbitral tribunal.
- Institutional Focus: Promoting institutional arbitration as a preferred method over ad-hoc arrangements, thereby enhancing efficiency.
- Arbitration Council of India (ACI): Provides powers to create model rules of procedure for arbitral proceedings and recognize arbitral institutions.
- Video Conferencing: Allow arbitrations conducted via video conferencing.
- Establishing an Appellate Arbitral Tribunal (AATs): To handle applications against an arbitral award.

4.8. GOVERNMENT LITIGATION

Why in the News?

Ministry of Law issues directive to minimize litigation involving central government.

More on the News

- The 'Directive for the Efficient and Effective Management of Litigation by Government of India' is an integrated approach towards good governance, public welfare and timely dispensation of justice.
- Aim: Serve as a "Standard Operating Procedure" for litigation management.
- Applicability: All Central Government Ministries/Departments, their attached and subordinate offices, autonomous bodies and for arbitration matters to CPSEs as well.
 - State Governments may also consider adopting the Directive.
- 70% of government litigation is frivolous and can be curtailed to lessen the court's workload

Challenges in Government Litigation Management

- Narrow interpretation of statutory provision: It often serves as the primary catalyst for escalating grievances into litigation.
- Concentration of Litigation: E.g., Central government is a party in nearly 700,000 cases pending across courts.
- Capacity Constraints: Ministries capacity to manage litigation is limited due to resource constraints. E.g., Most Ministries don't have Legal Cell.
- Non-fulfilment of procedural requirement: E.g., Improper or incomplete submission of forms, affidavits, etc.

Directives to Manage Litigation

- Strengthening Capacity: Dedicated Legal Cell, Appointing a Nodal Officer with legal expertise.
 - Also, Litigation specific courses be made available on i-GOT Karmayogi platform.
- Grievance Redressal Mechanism: Ministries should review grievance redressal quarterly and analyze trends through compiled data.
 - E.g., Department of Posts holds "Staff Adalats" biannually at Circle level.
- Establishment of Government Arbitration Portal: On the lines of National judicial Data Grid to collate data, etc.

Conclusion

Introduce effective measures to simplify legal processes, address inconsistencies in notifications and orders, minimize unwarranted appeals, streamline inter-departmental coordination in litigation, and establish a strong Knowledge Management System (KMS) to improve overall efficiency.

4.9. ROLE OF AI IN JUDICIARY AND LAW ENFORCEMENT

Why in the News?

AI-powered technologies such as Machine Learning (ML), Natural Language Processing (NLP), Optical Character Recognition (OCR), Predictive Analytics etc. are being leveraged to integrate AI into judicial processes, legal research, and law enforcement.

Role of Artificial Intelligence in Judiciary and Law Enforcement

Judiciary Modernization	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Enhances efficiency and digital transformation in judicial functions. AI in Phase III of e-Courts for automated case management, legal research, forecasting delays/adjournments, predictive case analysis. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> E.g., SUPACE (Supreme Court Portal for Assistance in Courts Efficiency) portal helps analyse large amounts of data pertaining to case filings.
Legal Translation & Accessibility	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Over 31,000 Supreme Court judgments translated into 16 languages using AI based software like SUVAS (Supreme Court Vidhik Anuvaad Software). e-SCR portal provides access to AI-translated judgments.
Law Enforcement & Crime Prevention	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> AI in predictive policing: analyzing crime patterns, high-risk areas, criminal behaviour. AI-powered surveillance: automated drones for crime scene monitoring, facial recognition linked with criminal databases. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> E.g., NCRB's NAFRS (National Automated Facial Recognition System) and ABHED (Artificial Intelligence Based Human Efface Detection) application, being used by Rajasthan and Punjab police. AI-based forensic analysis for examining digital evidence and crime traits. Innovative tools like voice-recognition FIR filing and AR-based crime scene reconstruction. Integration of AI with national systems like CCTNS, e-Prisons, and e-Forensics for improved crime tracking and coordination.

Challenges and Impacts of Adopting AI in Judiciary and Law Enforcement

- Data Quality and Algorithmic Bias: Poor, siloed, or biased data leads to unreliable, unfair AI outcomes, eroding trust. E.g., AI biases against darker skin persons and women in the western countries.
 - Also, digital exclusion of marginalized and poor in remote areas due to digital divide (infrastructure and literacy) can lead to systemic biases against them.
- Transparency: Opaque AI models (Black Boxes having algorithm with no clear reasoning) fail legal scrutiny and public trust in judicial and policing decisions.
- Ethical, Legal, Privacy Issues: Accountability gaps, privacy risks, and unclear laws cause violations and delays.
- Capacity and Resistance: Limited expertise, funding, and fear of job loss or distrust leads to slow adoption.

Conclusion

While the adoption of AI presents challenges, particularly in data security, ethical governance, and legal adaptation, its potential to strengthen India's justice system is unparalleled. The future of AI in law and justice will be shaped by AI-powered legal research, Blockchain-secured case records, judicial transparency through AI analytics, and enhanced cybersecurity in law enforcement.

5. ELECTIONS IN INDIA

5.1. ELECTORAL REFORMS AT A GLANCE

Electoral Reforms

Election is the process of voting to choose an individual at regular intervals for holding public office through free will of the people in a representative democracy.

 Role of Elections in a Democracy
Ensure Accountability	Enable Participation	Promote National Unity	Act as Corrective Mechanism	Foster Integration	Encourage Democratic Ownership
Create responsible and answerable governments	Involve political parties and citizens in governance	Foster collective identity and patriotism	Keep ruling parties in check; reflect public will	Link diverse citizens, strengthening political cohesion	Enable expression of support or dissent, deepening democratic culture

 Issues associated with election process in India
Financing of elections	Misuse of Government Machinery	Criminalisation of Politics and Politicization of Criminals	Dummy Candidates in Political Parties	Influence of Social-Media

 Reforms for the betterment of electoral process
Transparency	Voter Participation	Technology Use	Level Playing Field
Mandatory disclosure of candidates' income sources	Lowering voting age; Postal ballot provisions; Election Laws (Amendment) Bill, 2021 – enables linking voter ID with Aadhaar.	Electronic Voting Machines (EVMs); NOTA	Model Code of Conduct (MCC); Spending limits on campaigns; Exit poll restrictions

5.1.1. INTERNAL DEMOCRACY IN POLITICAL PARTIES

Why in the News?

Discussions are ongoing about the role of Election Commission of India (ECI) in enforcing democratic functioning of political parties in India.

What is Internal Party Democracy?

- Internal party democracy is conceived as the internal arrangement, structure, and coordination of political parties in consonance with democratic principles with direct bearing on how candidates are selected, leaders emerge, policies are made and funding is provided.

Need for Internal Party Democracy

- Decentralization: It limits the centralized discretionary control exercised by top-level party leaders and opens decision-making processes to input from wider circles of party stakeholders at various levels.
- Prevent criminalization: Addresses the systemic issue of candidate selection based on "winnability", often driven by money and muscle power.
 - 46% of the newly elected Lok Sabha members have criminal cases against them (ADR)
- Representation: Ensures equal political opportunity for all citizens.

- Youth participation: It opens up opportunities for new talent and reduces the influence of established leaders.
- Reduce corruption: Administrative Reforms Commission (ARC)'s 2008 Ethics and Governance report noted that corruption is caused by over-centralisation.
- Transparency and Free flow of information: John Stuart Mill's "On Liberty" (1859) argues for the "absolute" protection of the "liberty of thought and discussion."

Reasons for Lack of Internal-Party Democracy

- No statutory backing: The only governing provision is under Section 29A of the Representation of the Peoples' Act (RPA), 1951 which provides for registration of political parties with the ECI.
 - Also, ECI's Guidelines and Application Format for the Registration of Political Parties under Section 29A only prescribe provisions for internal accountability and not candidate selection.
- Lack of penal provisions: As per the judgment under Supreme Court in Indian National Congress (I) v Institute of Social Welfare, the ECI currently lacks the power to deregister a party.
- Structural Challenges: Prevalence of dynastic politics; Centralized power structures; Anti-Defection Law (52nd Amendment to the Constitution) of 1985 mandating strict party line adherence, etc.
- Other issues: Lack of political will, Weak Organizational Framework, etc.

Way Forward

- Transparency: Several government-constituted committees related to electoral reforms like the Tarkunde Committee (1975), Dinesh Goswami Committee (1990), and Indrajit Gupta Committee (1998) strongly argued for more transparent working of the political parties in the country.
- Recommendations of Law Commission (255th Report) on "Electoral Reforms":
 - New Chapter IVC in RPA, 1951: To deal with internal democracy, party Constitutions, party organisation, internal elections, candidate selection, voting procedures, and the ECI's power to de-register a party in certain cases of non-compliance.
- National Commission to Review the Working of the Constitution (NCRWC):
 - Comprehensive legislation [as the Political Parties (Registration and Regulation) Act], regulating the registration and functioning of political parties or alliances of parties in India.

5.1.2. CRIMINALISATION OF POLITICS AT A GLANCE

Criminalisation of Politics

2nd ARC report in its 'Ethics in Governance' section stated it as participation of criminals in electoral process.

Criminalization of Politics – Causes

Winnability Factor	Delay in Convictions	Legal Gaps	Weak EC Powers
Candidates with criminal records have 15.4% chance as against just 4.4% for a candidate with a clean background (ADR)	Over 5,000 cases pending against politicians (SC, 2023)	RPA 1951 disqualifies only convicted, not accused candidates	EC can register but not de-register political parties

Impact

Corruption & Trust Deficit (India ranks 96 th on Corruption Index, 2024)	Criminals dominate parties, weakening inner-party democracy	Political-criminal nexus weakens investigation/prosecution (e.g., SC called CBI a "caged parrot")	Low Conviction Rate as 5,097 pending cases against lawmakers (SC amicus, 2022)	Focus on maximizing financial and muscle power impacts the cause of social welfare , promotes culture of violence and social disharmony
--	--	---	---	---

Measures Taken

RPA 1951: Sec 8(3) disqualifies lawmakers sentenced to 2+ years (Art. 102 & 191).	ECI Web Portal: For online submission of political party finances
--	--

Key SC Judgments

ADR Case (2002): Voters have a right to know candidate background	PUCI Case (2004): Struck down Sec 33B RPA act 1951, upholding full disclosure	Lily Thomas Case (2013): Held that membership of convicted parliamentarian no longer protected under Sec 8(4) of RPA act, 1951.

5.2. FREEBIES

Why in the News?

Recently, the Supreme Court asked if freebies promote a parasitic lifestyle among the poor and reduce their drive to seek work.

What are Freebies?

RBI's Definition: "Public welfare measures provided free of charge."

- Given in the form of election promises by political parties.
- Many experts believe that in the recent times, welfarism and freebies have become synonyms.

Welfarism vs. Freebies

Welfarism: Constitutionally rooted sustained efforts like PDS, MGNREGA, etc. to build human capital.

Freebies: Short-term handouts (e.g., free power) lack sustainability, distort markets, discourage work, etc.

Multiple Approaches to Welfarism

Charity Approach	Needs Approach	Rights-Based Approach
Focus: Input, not outcome	Focus: Input & outcome for needs	Focus: Process & outcome for rights

Rich's moral duty to poor	Needs as valid claims	Rights as legal & moral claims
Individuals as victims	Individuals as development objects	Individuals & groups empowered to claim rights
Targets problem manifestation	Targets immediate causes	Targets structural causes & manifestations

Constitutional and Legal Perspectives

- Directive Principles of State Policy (DPSP): Articles 38, 39, 41 highlight the state's role in promoting welfare, ensuring livelihood for all, preventing wealth concentration, etc.
- Election Commission: Urges transparency in electoral promises, asking parties to reveal funding for freebies.

Judicial Pronouncements related to Freebies

Subramaniam Balaji Case (2013): Court upheld state distribution of items like TVs and laptops as aligned with DPSP.

Ashwini Kumar Upadhyay v Union of India (pending): Court is reviewing challenges to freebies in election campaigns.

Impacts of Freebies

Positive (Welfarism)	Negative (Freebies)
Basic Needs: food, health, housing, etc.	Financial Burden: Strains budgets, cuts infrastructure spending.
Gender Parity: Boosts enrolment (e.g., meals, bicycles).	Creates dependency, lowers productivity.
Inclusivity: Removes financial barriers for growth.	Harms sustainability, burdens future generations.
Political Participation: Engages voters, enhances democracy.	Used as populist vote-buying tactic .
Tackles under-employment , inter-generational mobility issues.	Weakens manufacturing competitiveness .

Steps to be taken

- Policy Reforms: Fiscal prudence, prevent leakages, expand insurance coverage & build consensus.
- Role of Election Commission: Regulate manifestos for transparency and accountability.
- Skill Development: Empower individuals to reduce freebie dependency.
- Intervention: Form expert committees (comprising NITI Aayog, RBI and Finance Commission) to assess impact.
- Global Lessons:
 - Sri Lanka's 2019 tax cuts caused revenue loss and collapse.
 - Venezuela's populist freebies led to economic crisis.

Conclusion

In alignment with the Amartya Sen's "Capability Approach," governments must reprioritize long-term empowerment enhancing human capabilities and freedoms over short-term freebies. It can help in avoiding the race to the bottom and prevent fiscal disaster, as warned by NK Singh. (Chairman, 15th Finance Commission).

5.3. ELECTION COMMISSION OF INDIA (ECI)

Why in the News?

ECI, established on 25th January 1950, celebrated 75 years of its establishment.

About ECI

- About: It is a permanent Constitutional Body.
 - Article 324 has vested the power of superintendence, direction and control of elections to Parliament, State Legislatures, offices of President and Vice-President with the ECI.
- Composition: One Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) & such number of other Election Commissioners (ECs), as the President may fix (currently, one CEC and two ECs).
- Appointment: President appoints CEC and ECs.
 - Recently, a new CEC has been appointed for the first time under the Chief Election Commissioner and Other Election Commissioner Act, 2023, which provides more autonomy to the ECI in form of
 - > Same status, salary, and perks for CEC and ECs as the Judges of the Supreme Court (SC).
 - > Immunity from civil/criminal proceedings for official duties.
 - > Fixed tenure for CEC & ECs.

Key Achievements of ECI

- Successful Elections: It has a track record of conducting 18 Lok Sabha and over 400 State Legislative Assembly Elections successfully.
 - It conducts elections for Lok Sabha & Rajya Sabha, State Legislative Assemblies, President & Vice President.
- Elector Registration: Achieved a milestone of 100 crore registered electors celebrating Indian democracy.
- Improved Gender Ratio: The gender ratio of registered voters improved to 948 women per 1,000 men (2024) from 928 (2019).
- Check on criminalization of politics: Introduction of requirement to publish details of candidates with pending criminal cases.
- Various Initiatives: Like Systematic Voters' Education & Electoral Participation (SVEEP) for voter education, SAKSHAM app to facilitate voting by Persons with Disabilities (PwDs).

Issues Faced by ECI

- Questionable Autonomy
 - Selection Process: The search and selection committee have a majority of government representatives, raising concerns about independence.
 - Removal of ECs: Unlike the CEC, the ECs can be removed based on the CEC's recommendation.
- Limited Powers: ECI cannot de-register political parties, even for serious violations.
- Lack of Independent Staff: ECI relies on government employees instead of having its own dedicated workforce, affecting its autonomy.

Way forward

- Balanced composition of Selection Committee: Goswami Committee on Electoral Reforms (1990) and 255th Law Commission Report had recommended that,
 - Select committee for choosing CEC and ECs, should consist of Prime Minister, Leader of Opposition of Lok Sabha and CJI.
- Post retirement: Goswami Committee (1990) had recommended that CEC and ECs should not be eligible for any further office under government, including office of Governor.
- Administrative Independence: Goswami Committee and ECI have recommended an independent secretariat for functioning of the ECI.
- Equal constitutional protection to all members of the ECI: As per 255th Law Commission Report, Article 324(5) should be amended to equate the removal procedures of ECs with that of CEC.

Conclusion

Empowering the ECI with administrative autonomy, constitutional protections, and a transparent appointment process would ensure greater trust and enhanced participation of citizens in India's electoral democracy.

5.3.1. STATE ELECTION COMMISSION (SEC)

Why in the news?

Recently, CAG in its Karnataka report, observed that disempowerment of SECs delays elections to local governments.

About State Election Commission (SECs)

- It is an autonomous constitutional authority responsible for administering elections to Local Self Government, which includes Panchayati Raj Institutions (PRIs) and Urban Local Bodies.
- 73rd and 74th Amendment Act, 1992 provides for constitution of SEC.
 - It was also recommended by Gadgil Committee.

Constitutional Provisions related to State Election Commission

Article 243 K (1) and Article 243 ZA: Superintendence, direction and control of preparation of electoral rolls and conduct of all elections to Panchayats and Municipalities respectively shall be vested in SEC

Article 243K (2): Conditions of service and tenure of office of State Election Commissioner shall be determined by Governor.

- He shall not be removed from office except in manner and on grounds prescribed for removal of a judge of state high court.
- He can be removed only by the President.

Functions of State Election Commission

Delimiting constituencies for local body elections to ensure fair representation

Oversees preparation and revision of electoral rolls for local body elections

Reservation of seats for SCS, STs, and OBCs in local body elections

Authority to decide disputes related to local body elections, including matters of disqualification of candidate

Make recommendations regarding financial powers and resources allocated to local bodies

Provide advice to Governor on matters related to conduct of local body elections

Issues associated with State Election Commission

- Delayed Elections: State governments' failure to publish reservation rosters (e.g., Karnataka PRIs elections delayed by 3.5 years).
- Appointment Process: Appointing government employees compromises independence, increasing susceptibility to political influence.
- Lack of Trained Manpower: Hinders smooth local-level elections.
- Voter Apathy: Low voter turnout in urban local body elections (e.g., 45-48% in Bengaluru, Chennai, Mumbai).
- Governance Challenges: Unclear legal frameworks lead to disputes with state governments.

- Janaagraha's Annual Survey of India's City Systems (ASICS), 2023 shows that only 11 out of 34 States and Union Territories have empowered SECs to conduct ward delimitation.

Way Forward

- Supreme Court Observation (2006): SECs must be empowered like the ECI, with states providing necessary funds, staff, and support.
- 2nd ARC Recommendations:
 - Appoint State Election Commissioners via a collegium (Chief Minister, Speaker, Leader of Opposition).
 - Create an institutional mechanism for ECI-SECs coordination, resource sharing, and mutual learning.
- Timely Delimitation: Mandate ward and reservation reviews every 10 years to avoid delays and arbitrariness.
- Expand SEC Powers: Empower SECs to oversee reservations and mayoral elections to prevent malpractices (e.g., 2024 Chandigarh case).
- Public Awareness Campaigns: Launch SVEEP-like drives to raise turnout, voter literacy, and curb electoral misconduct.

Conclusion

Granting State Election Commissions parity with the ECI in terms of independence and authority will go a long way in fulfilling the true spirit of the 73rd and 74th Constitutional Amendments and strengthening grassroots democracy.

5.4. DELIMITATION COMMISSION

Why in the News?

To assuage the southern states on the controversy of delimitation, the Union Home Minister assured that the southern states would get their rightful share of any increase in seats, and not a single Lok Sabha seat is going to be reduced on a pro rata basis.

About Delimitation

- Act of redrawing boundaries of Lok Sabha and Assembly seats to represent changes in population.
- Responsibility of delimitation is assigned to a high power body known as Delimitation Commission (Boundary Commission).
- In India, such Delimitation Commissions have been constituted 4 times – in 1952, 1963, 1973 and 2002.
- In 2002, 84th Constitutional Amendment was used to freeze the process of delimitation for Lok Sabha and State assemblies till at least 2026. As a result, Delimitation Commission could not increase the total seats in Lok Sabha or Assemblies. It may be done only after 2026.

Constitutional Provisions related to Delimitations

- Article 82: Parliament enacts a Delimitation Act after every Census which establishes a delimitation commission.
- Article 170: States get divided into territorial constituencies as per Delimitation Act after every Census

About Delimitation Commission

- Provides equal representation for equal population segments, and fair division of geographical areas, so that no political party has an advantage.
- Appointed by President of India and works in collaboration with ECI. Commission has three ex-officio members:
 - a serving or retired judge of Supreme Court as chairperson,

- Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) or Election Commissioner nominated by CEC and
- State Election Commissioner of concerned state.
- Its orders have the force of law and cannot be called in question before any court.
 - However, recently, SC in Kishor Chandra Chhanganlal Rathod Case held that constitutional courts have the power to review orders of the Delimitation Commission if an order is manifestly arbitrary and irreconcilable to constitutional values.

Issues arising out of unequal representation

- North-South Debate:
 - Population control penalty: Population-based delimitation may reduce southern states' political representation in parliament, unfairly penalizing them for successful population control and governance.
 - Federalism and regional autonomy: Significant shift in representation could weaken federalism as national policies might be tailored to suit northern states' priorities.
- Dilute "One Citizen One Vote" principle: For example, in UP an MP on average represents around 2.53 million people, whereas in Tamilnadu, an MP represents on average around 1.84 million people, a quantitative dilution.

Conclusion

Delimitation should be carried out after every census so that changes are not too extensive and value of every elector's vote remains more or less steady. There is a need of consensus on how to deal with the problems that are likely to arise.

5.5. AI IN ELECTION CAMPAIGN

Why in the News?

Election Commission of India (ECI) issued advisory regarding use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) content by political parties.

Advisories include:

- Labeling AI/Synthetically Generated Content: Clearly label any image, video, audio or other materials generated or significantly altered by AI technologies
- Disclosure in Campaign Materials: by Including disclaimers wherever synthetic content is utilized
- Additionally, in another development Delhi police has appointed a nodal officer to monitor social media for potential misuse of AI in Delhi's assembly election.

Impact of AI in Elections
Aspect	Positive Impact	Negative Consequence
Voter Engagement	Chatbots personalize outreach	Deepfakes mislead voters
Electoral Security	Detects fraud, strengthens cybersecurity	Risk of cyberattacks, tech failures
Data & Predictions	Helps strategy, resource allocation	Algorithms may manipulate behaviour
Microtargeting	Accurate, efficient messaging	Bias in data can marginalize groups
Tech Dependency	Enhances campaign efficiency	Over-reliance threatens transparency and privacy

Steps to be Taken

- Assess and research the impact of AI in social media on freedom of speech and elections.
- Independently verify claims made by platforms under their accountability and transparency obligations.
- Create regulated algorithmic filters to detect harmful content and ensure accountability.
- Establish global AI standards to safeguard democracy.

Conclusion

To preserve free and fair elections in the digital age, electoral laws must evolve alongside technology. A proactive legal framework will ensure accountability of political actors using AI tools.

6.1.1. MISSION KARMAYOGI

Why in the news?

Recently, Capacity Building Commission (CBC), launched in 2021, as part of National Programme for Civil Services Capacity Building (NPCSCB) - Mission Karmayogi has completed three years.

About NPCSCB - Mission Karmayogi

- Aims to build a professional, future-ready civil service with a shared understanding of India's developmental goals, national programs, and priorities.
- Covers all civil servants, including contractual employees, across Union Government ministries, departments, and agencies.
- Willing state governments can align their capacity-building plans similarly.
- CBC was launched to build credibility and shape a uniform approach to capacity building on a collaborative and co-sharing basis.
- Guiding Principles of Mission Karmayogi
 - Shift from rule-based to role-based, demand-driven capacity building.
 - Adopt a competency-driven approach, combining attitudes, skills, and knowledge (ASK).
 - Follow the 70-20-10 learning model: 70% on-the-job, 20% from collaboration, and 10% from formal training.

- Align learning with organizational and individual career goals.
- Establish unbiased, objective performance evaluation systems.
- Promote continuous, lifelong learning and break down governmental silos.
- iGOT Karmayogi Platform
 - Comprehensive online portal guiding officials in capacity building.
 - Monitors performance of users (learners, supervisors, content providers) via key performance indicators.
 - Recently, Amrit gyan kosh Portal, a comprehensive repository which curates' best practices from across India, aligning with 15 of the 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), was launched on iGOT Platform.

Significance of Mission Karmayogi

- Professional Growth: Enhances civil servants' behavioral, functional, and domain competencies.
- Uniform Training: Standardizes training nationwide through collaboration.
- Cost Reduction: Prioritizes online courses, reduces foreign training expenses.
- Inspiring Ethics: Promotes ethical conduct among aspiring civil servants.
- Economic Growth: Supports policies for ease of doing business.
- Citizen-Centric: Shifts to role-based governance, fostering teamwork and better service delivery.

Other Initiatives for Civil Servants

- National Standards for Civil Service Training Institutions (NSCSTI): Sets baselines for Central Training Institutes to improve training quality.
- Aarambh: Common foundation course for civil servants, launched in 2019.
- National Training Policy: Adopted in 1996, reviewed in 2012, to develop responsive civil servants.

Concerns with Mission Karmayogi

- Scalability: Training 1.5 crore officials across levels is challenging.
- Over-Centralization: Centralized framework may face state resistance.
- Bureaucratic Resistance: Status-quoist bureaucracy may oppose reforms.
- Relevance: Tailoring training to diverse regional needs (e.g., Himalayan vs. desert areas) is difficult.

Conclusion

Mission Karmayogi seeks to democratize training, reduce complexity, and break silos in civil services. Evolving programs and state cooperation can enhance service delivery and empower civil servants.

6.1.2. GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL MECHANISM

Why in the news?

Recently, Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances & Pensions (MoPPG&P) issued comprehensive Guidelines for Handling Public Grievances for making grievance redressal time-bound, accessible and meaningful.

Key highlights of Comprehensive Guidelines for Handling Public Grievances

- Integrated CPGRAMS platform offers single-window grievance filing, ensuring faster, non-duplicative resolution.
- Nodal Officers appointed in all Ministries for prompt redressal.
- Dedicated Grievance Cells established with trained staff.
- Timelines for effective grievance redressal have been reduced to 21 days from existing 30 days

About Grievance Redressal Mechanism (GRM)

- Purpose: Measures organizational effectiveness through citizen feedback on service delivery failures or rights violations.

- Nodal Agencies:
 - Department of Administrative Reforms and Public Grievances (DARPG) under MoPPG&P.
 - Directorate of Public Grievances, Cabinet Secretariat.
- CPGRAMS:
 - Online 24x7 platform for lodging grievances with public authorities.
 - Connected to all Ministries/Departments/States, with role-based officer access.
 - Redressed ~60 lakh grievances (2022-2024), mapped 1.01 lakh officers.

Importance of Grievance Redressal Mechanism

Effective GRM builds trust between government and citizens

Ensures accountability of government officials and institutions

Aids in identifying bottlenecks in government measures based on citizen feedback

Tackle corruption by providing a secure channel for citizens and whistle-blowers

Ensure protection of rights

Formal grievances platform prevent potential public dissatisfaction

Other Initiatives for Grievance Redressal

- Constitutional/Statutory Bodies: CVC, Lokayuktas, NHRC, SHRC address corruption, abuse, or human rights violations.
- Grievance Redressal Assessment Index (GRAI): Designed by DARPG to compare and improve GRM performance.
- PRAGATI: Multi-modal platform for addressing grievances and monitoring government projects.
- E-Nivaran: CBDT initiative for fast-tracking taxpayer grievance resolution.
- Citizen Charter: Addresses issues faced by citizens in public service interactions.

Issues with GRM

- Delays: Many complaints on CPGRAMS remain unresolved beyond the 45-day norm (which is now reduced to 30 days).
- Corruption: in some instances, some officials delay or manipulate outcomes in exchange for bribes.
- Lack of Integration: Multiplicity of grievance redressal platforms across different sectors (e.g., public distribution systems, consumer rights), across state.
- Digital Divide: Rural citizens lack internet access or digital literacy for online platforms.

Way Ahead

- 2nd ARC Recommendations:
 - Establish independent state-level grievance redressal authorities.
 - Analyze complaints to address underlying causes.
- Parliamentary Standing Committee (25th Report):
 - Ensure accessible, simple, and effective grievance systems.
 - Enact statutory GRM like RTI Act, 2005, mandating final disposal.
- Decentralized Redressal: Empower local offices for faster resolutions.
- Simplify Processes: Minimize paperwork, enhance accessibility (e.g., operationalize Information & Facilitation Counters).
- Monitoring & Feedback: Use audits, KPIs (response times, resolution rates, satisfaction) to evaluate performance.
- Technology Integration: Employ AI for grievance categorization/prioritization and data analytics for trend analysis and resource allocation.

Conclusion

Strengthening GRM through integration, decentralization, and technology will enhance accessibility and efficiency, ensuring citizen-centric governance.

6.1.3. LATERAL ENTRY IN CIVIL SERVICES

Why in the News?

A recent UPSC advertisement for recruitment to 45 lateral entry posts of Secretary and Joint Secretary at the Centre was withdrawn.

More on the News

- The lateral entry advertisement was withdrawn due to criticism for lacking SC, ST, and OBC quotas.
- According to a letter by DoPT to the UPSC (in November 2018)
 - Lateral entry resembles deputation, where SC/ST/OBC reservations are not mandatory.
 - Eligible SC/ST/OBC candidates should be considered and prioritized for holistic representation.

How have lateral entries been kept out of the ambit of reservation?

- Reservations follow the “13-point roster,” with no quotas for up to three vacancies.
- UPSC advertised 45 lateral entry posts separately per department, each is treated as a single-post vacancy, exempt from reservations
- Supreme Court (Akhilesh Kumar Singh vs Ram Dawan, 2015): Reservations for single posts violate Articles 16(1) and 16(4) as it takes reservation to 100%.

About Lateral Entry

- Recruitment of external candidates for mid/senior-level government posts, bypassing traditional UPSC exams.
- Unlike advisory roles (e.g., Chief Economic Advisor), it involves contractual employment for 3–5 years, extendable based on performance.
- Practiced in countries like Australia, USA, and UK alongside direct entry.

Lateral Entry in Indian Bureaucracy

Advantages of Lateral Entry	Issues with Lateral Entry
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Addresses Shortages: Only 442 IAS officers work at the Centre against a required 1,469 (2023-24 DoPT report). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Baswan Committee (2016) supported lateral entry. Enhances Efficiency: Introduces competition to career bureaucracy (NITI Aayog). Domain Expertise: Brings specialists in economics, finance, AI, and technology for fresh perspectives. Meets Departmental Needs: Supports ministries like civil aviation and environment requiring private sector collaboration. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Short-Term Focus (3–5-years) Social Justice Conflict Conflict of Interest (Private sector appointees may prioritize profit over welfarism). Accountability Challenges Lack of Grassroots Experience Political Interference (nepotism and favoritism)

Way Forward

- Public Administration University: Train aspiring and serving bureaucrats for domain expertise and managerial skills.
- Private Sector Deputation: Allow IAS/IPS officers to gain private sector experience for expertise and competition.
- Goal Setting and Tracking: Ministries should set outcome-based goals with timelines, leveraging Mission Karmayogi for mid-career training.
- Career Management: Enable civil servants to gain cross-sector knowledge initially, followed by specialization, with study breaks for further expertise.
- Two-Tier Entry System: Introduce IAS entry at 25–30 years (standard) and 37–42 years (lateral), as suggested by D. Subbarao (former RBI Governor).

6.2. CITIZEN PARTICIPATION IN GOOD GOVERNANCE

Why in the news?

Recently, MyGov platform completed 10 years.

About MyGov Platform

- Launched by the Prime Minister, MyGov is a citizen engagement platform collaborating with government bodies to involve citizens in policy formulation and gather opinions on public interest issues.
- Major Campaigns:
 - LiFE Campaign: Promotes individual and community actions to address environmental degradation and climate change.
 - Stay Safe Online: Launched by MeitY during India's G20 presidency to educate citizens, including specially-abled individuals, on cyber safety and hygiene.
 - Swachh Bharat Survekshan: Encourages public participation through interactive activities and social media for a cleaner India.
 - Millet-SuperFood: Highlights millets' nutritional benefits and role in preventing lifestyle diseases.

Three key Pillars of MyGov

- Do (include quizzes, Innovate India initiatives, pledges, Self 4 Society program, Saathi 2.0 initiative etc.)
- Discuss (facilitates group discussions, Mann Ki Baat radio program etc.)
- Disseminate (focuses on blogs, periodic Newsletters, email, along with MyGov OTT etc.)

What is Good Governance?

- Good governance can be referred to as an effective and efficient process of decision making and the process by which decisions are implemented keeping the amelioration of citizens as the topmost priority.
- The United Nations outlines eight traits of good governance

How Citizen Participation Helps in Good Governance?

- Accountability: Tools like RTI and feedback ensure officials are answerable, enhancing transparency.
- Service Delivery: Citizen input refines services, e.g., inputs received through MyGov were used to improve the Swachh Bharat Mission, such as better placement of public toilets.

- Inclusivity: Engages marginalized voices, e.g., MGNREGA audits empower the poor.
- Trust: Participation builds trust, e.g., Gram Sabhas.
- Innovation: Citizens drive solutions, e.g., Mysuru's plastic-to-tiles idea.

Challenges in Citizen Participation

- Lack of Commitment: Time and resource constraints limit sustained citizen engagement.
- Limited Engagement: Lack of knowledge, complex procedures, and red tape hinder participation.
- Administrative Challenges: Governments may lack capacity to manage large-scale feedback or events.
- Limited Trust: Unfulfilled promises, perceived corruption, and ignored community input reduce public trust.
- Social Factors: Socio-economic conditions, cultural norms, and patriarchy restrict participation, especially for women and marginalized groups.

Way Ahead

- Accessibility: Enhance transparency by releasing structured government data and strengthening the RTI Act.
- Awareness: Introduce civic education in schools and conduct workshops to educate citizens on rights and participation.
- Digital Platforms: Develop user-friendly e-governance platforms to facilitate access and feedback.
- Inclusive Policy-Making: Hold regular public consultations with diverse representation, e.g., strengthen public hearings in Environmental Impact Assessments.
- Grievance Redressal: Streamline mechanisms to address complaints promptly and improve feedback systems for better policy implementation.

6.2.1. GOVERNANCE AND AI

Why in the News?

Union Minister of Commerce & Industry and Civil Aviation recently said that Government will use Artificial Intelligence (AI) for good governance and proper regulations and corrective action will be taken to protect citizen's privacy and ownership of data.

Potential of AI to Transform Governance in India

- Efficient Service Delivery: AI automates public services, reducing government workload and improving service quality.
- Education: AI can personalize learning, create smart content, and automate grading and assessments.
 - For example, NCERT has listed 31 metadata elements for each resource in its NROER repository.
- Healthcare: AI improves delivery and accessibility, especially through telemedicine in remote areas.
 - NITI Aayog with Department of Bio- Technology (DBT) aims to build database of cancer related radiology and pathology images for effective use of AI in cancer management.
- Agriculture: AI offers predictive insights for weather, pest management, and resource use.
 - The National Pest Surveillance System uses AI and ML for timely crop intervention.
- Inclusivity and Accessibility: AI-powered DPI systems bridge linguistic and accessibility gaps.
 - For example, the Bhashini platform uses AI for regional language government services.
- Data-Driven Policymaking: AI analyzes large datasets for policy formulation, enhancing transparency.
 - The India Urban Data Exchange uses AI for urban service optimization.

Idea of Participatory Governance In India and Abroad

Land Acquisition Act, 2013: Social impact assessment study in collaboration with affected families.

Forest Rights Act, 2006: Gram Sabha as the statutory institution due to its participatory and democratic nature.

Nagoya Protocol on Access and Benefits Sharing: Benefits arising from the use of traditional knowledge be shared with indigenous communities.

- Judicial Efficiency: AI automates case management, predicts outcomes, and streamlines legal research.
 - SUVAS is an AI-based translation tool for legal proceedings.
- Disaster Management: AI systems like RAHAT provide early warnings and support emergency responses.

Challenges in AI Integration for Governance

- Fragmented Data: The National Data Governance Framework Policy has not yet been implemented.
- Infrastructure Gaps: 45% of India's population lacks internet access as of 2023.
- Regulatory Frameworks: Lack of AI-specific laws compared to the EU's AI Act.
- Skill Gaps: A demand-supply gap of 140,000 AI professionals.
- Data Privacy: Increased risk of data breaches with AI reliance on sensitive data.
- Weak IP Regime: India ranks 42nd in the 2024 IP Index.
- Ethical Biases: AI can produce discriminatory outcomes from biased training data.

Way Forward

- Risk Management and Ethical Oversight: Dynamic assessment with human oversight to prevent biases.
- Data Sovereignty and Privacy: Ensure compliance with data protection laws.
- Bias, Fairness, and Transparency: Implement audits and use diverse datasets.
- Education and Skill Development: Expand AI education in underserved areas.
- Public-Private Collaboration: Initiatives like IndiaAI Compute Capacity.
- Cybersecurity and Monitoring: Use AI for real-time threat detection.

Conclusion

AI has immense potential to revolutionize governance by enhancing service delivery, transparency, and citizen engagement. However, its deployment must be guided by ethical principles, robust data protection laws, and inclusive digital infrastructure to ensure AI remains a force for equitable and responsible public good.

6.3. E-GOVERNANCE

6.3.1. E- GOVERNANCE AT A GLANCE

E-Governance

E-governance or ‘electronic governance’ is using information and communication technologies (ICTs) at various levels of the government and the public sector and beyond.

Purpose: To make simple, moral, accountable, responsive, and transparent (SMART) governance a reality.

Categories

G2C (Government to Citizen)	G2G (Government to Government)	G2B (Government to Business)	G2E (Government to Employee)
DigiLocker, Aadhar etc.	Crime and Criminal Tracking Network & Systems (CCTNS), E-court, etc.	GeM (Government e-Marketplace), StartUp India Portal, etc.	Centralized Attendance Management System (CAMS), e-Vetan / e-Payroll Systems etc.

Initiative taken for e-Governance in India

‘Digital India’ programme (2015)	Common Services Centres	Unified Mobile Application for New-age Governance (UMANG)	DigiLocker	National Agriculture Market (e-NAM):
To transform India into a digitally empowered society and knowledge-based economy.	Offering services in digital mode in rural areas through Village Level Entrepreneurs (VLEs).	For providing government services to citizen through mobile	To facilitate paperless availability of public documents	Launched in 2016, for creating online transparent competitive bidding system to facilitate farmers.

Challenges for e-Governance in India

Privacy and Security issues	Economic issues	Use of local languages	Low digital Literacy	Rural-urban digital divide
Security of online transactions, misuse of data, cyber frauds, data theft, phishing.	Huge initial costs to government.	English may not be understandable by most of the people in India	Only 38% of households in India are digitally literate.	only 24% of rural Indian households have access to the internet, compared to a 66% penetration in cities (NSSO)

Way forward

The e-governance policy framework must be insulated from the frequently changing political and bureaucratic leadership.	The risk associated with technology should be shared with other public agencies and citizens.	Technology should be developed to deliver the services and information who do not own the computers or lack internet facility.	Awareness campaigns should be conducted in local language of the citizens

6.3.2. REGULATING BIG TECH

Why in the News?

The Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) has invited public feedback on the Digital Competition Law Committee's Report.

Background

- The Committee reviewed the Competition Act, 2002 to address new challenges in the digital economy.
- Rising global concerns over Big Tech's anti-competitive practices have called for stronger regulatory measures for Big Techs like Google, Meta, Amazon, Microsoft, and X. e.g. Meta & WhatsApp vs CCI (India, 2024–25) etc.

Why Big Tech Needs Regulation?

- Threat to Sovereignty: Threat of misusing user data by illegally collecting, transmitting it to servers outside country.
- Network effect: Big tech grows fast by using network effects i.e., the more users they have, the stronger they get, making it hard for new players to compete.
- Revenue loss to exchequer: India loses around $10 billion annually due to tax abuse by multinational companies.
- Data Privacy and Cyber Security Risks: Massive data collection opens doors to misuse, surveillance, and data breaches.
- Ethical Concerns: Transparency and Accountability, Public Interest vs. Corporate Profit, Digital Divide and Equity, Ethical Policy Making and Regulation, Environmental Responsibility.

Challenges in Regulating Big Tech

- Regulatory Vacuum: The Competition Act, 2002 works on an EX-POST model (acting AFTER anti-competitive behavior).
- Enforcement Lag: E.g., Digital Personal Data Protection Act (DPDPA), 2025 is yet to be enforced.
- Non-Uniform Regulatory Mechanism: The firms operate globally, but regulatory responses vary across jurisdictions.
- Techno-nationalism and Protectionism: These lead to jurisdictions favoring domestic firms.
- Ambiguity of Law: Whatsapp challenged Intermediary Rules, says traceability will break end-to-end encryption, breach privacy.

Key Legislations for Regulating Big Tech

India

- Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023 (DPDPA): Provide for the processing of digital personal data.
- Information Technology (Intermediary Guidelines and Digital Media Ethics Code) or IT Rules, 2021: Social media platforms with large user bases in India are classified as Significant Social Media Intermediaries (SSMIs).
- Competition Act, 2002
- Consumer Protection Act, 2019: Penalize companies for misleading advertisements and unfair trade practices.

Global

- European Union: Key ex-ante measures include the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 2016, and the Digital Market Act (DMA).
- The UN Set: Multilaterally Agreed Equitable Principles and Rules for the Control of Restrictive Business Practices.

Way Ahead to effectively regulate Big Tech: Key recommendation of the Committee on Digital Competition Law:

- Ex-Ante Regulation: Enact a Digital Competition Act to proactively regulate large digital firms.
- Systemically Significant Digital Enterprises (SSDEs): Identify major players offering core digital services (search, social media, OS, etc.) for ex-ante regulation.
 - Obligations of SSDEs: SSDEs must not;
 - > Favour their own or related-party products or Block third-party apps
 - > Force users to adopt their other services
 - > Use non-public business user data to compete
- Enforcement of provision: CCI should improve its technical capacity including within the Director General's office for early detection and disposal of cases. Additionally, form a separate NCLAT bench for faster appeals.
- Penalties: For contravention impose fine up to 10% of global turnover of SSDEs.

Conclusion

Big Tech firms like Google, Meta, Amazon, Microsoft, and X are being accused of concentrating power—shaping what we consume, think, and speak. Timely intervention through regulation is essential to protect innovation, fair competition and consumer choice.

6.3.3. NET NEUTRALITY

Why in the News?

Recently, a US Court of Appeals ruled against the Federal Communication Commission's (US's Telecom Regulator) attempt to enforce Net Neutrality, taking a divergent approach from India.

What is Net Neutrality?

- Net Neutrality represents an idea that a maximally useful public information network should treat all content, sites and platforms equally.
 - There should be no discrimination by Internet Service Providers (ISPs) in internet traffic based on service, application, sender, or recipient.

Debate surrounding Net Neutrality

Arguments for	Arguments against
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • User rights: Fundamental right to freedom of expression and non-discriminatory access to the internet. • Privacy: Without net neutrality, ISPs can examine and manipulate internet traffic, potentially compromising user privacy. • Innovation and entrepreneurship: Net Neutrality can ensure level-playing field for start-ups vis-à-vis deep-pocket tech-giants. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Loss of revenue for ISPs: Adverse impact on investment in fibre-based infrastructure and new access technologies. • Loss of level-playing field: Telecom Providers have to incur higher costs and comply with other regulatory norms for similar services like Voice. • Need of selective banning of OTT Apps: certain OTT Apps providing communication services can be selectively banned in disturbed areas, to prevent disruption of critical services such as education and health.

Net Neutrality Framework in India

- In 2018, Department of Telecommunication (DoT) notified Regulatory Framework on Net Neutrality.
 - It incorporated principles of non-discriminatory treatment of content by Internet Access Services.
 - However, it allows certain exceptions from non-discrimination rules for Content Delivery Networks (CDNs), IoT and Specialized Services, etc.

6.3.4. INTERNET SHUTDOWN

Why in the News?

India saw 60 mobile internet shutdowns in 2024, the lowest in 8 years, per the Software Freedom Law Centre's Tracker.

Provisions related to Internet Shutdowns in India

- CrPC, 1973: Before 2017, under Section 144 (now 163 of BNSS).
 - Allowed Magistrates to curb gatherings/activities.
- Telecommunications Act, 2023: Empowers temporary suspension of internet services to maintain law and order, public safety etc. except for natural disaster or public emergency.
- Article 19(2): Restricts speech for security, public order, etc.

Arguments in Favor of Internet Shutdowns	Arguments Against Internet Shutdowns
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Security: J&K post-370 shutdowns curbed militancy. ● Communal Violence: 2023 Manipur, Haryana internet shutdowns limited communal clashes. ● Misinformation: 2020 Delhi riots curbed fake news. ● Law and Order: Used during CAA and farm bill protests to maintain peace. ● Exam Integrity: 2021 REET exam in Rajasthan saw shutdowns to prevent paper leaks. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Economic Loss: $1.9 billion, $118 million in investment lost in first half of 2023. ● Right to trade (Article 19(1) (g): Digital business suffers particularly small traders relying on online payments. ● Human Rights: E.g., women can't report crimes. ● Rights Violation: Limits speech (Article 19), info access. ● Press Freedom: E.g., 2019 J&K journalism impacted. ● Education/Healthcare: Disrupts learning, telemedicine.

Judicial Pronouncements related to Freedom of Internet

- Faheema Shirin v. State of Kerala: Kerala HC recognized internet as Fundamental Right (Art. 21)
- Anuradha Bhasin v. union of India: SC reaffirmed internet freedom as Fundamental under Article 19(1)(a).

Recommendations of the Parliamentary Standing Committee on Communications and Information Technology (Report: 'Suspension of Telecom Services/Internet and its Impact', 2021)

- Global best practices: Department of Telecommunication (DoT) to study and practices from other democratic countries.
- Suspension grounds: Codify criteria and mechanisms to justify internet shutdowns.
- Proportionality: DoT and MHA should set proportionality rules and shutdown lifting procedures.
- Review Committee: Include retired judges and public members in the 3-member review committee.
- Selective bans: DoT should frame policy for selective bans.
- Shutdown effectiveness: DoT and MHA should assess shutdown impacts on safety and emergencies.

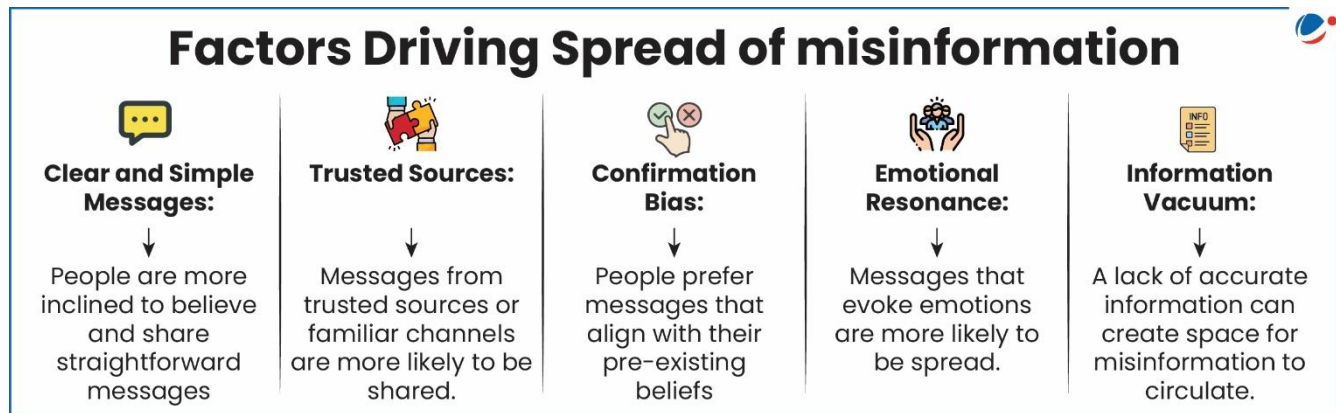

6.4. ONLINE MISINFORMATION

Why in the News?

United Nations unveiled the "Global Principles for Information Integrity: Recommendations for Multi-stakeholder Action" for curbing the spread of online misinformation, disinformation, hate speech.

About Online Misinformation

- Misinformation refers to false or misleading content shared without harmful intent, though it can still be harmful.
 - False or misleading content spread with the intent to deceive or gain economically or politically, causing public harm is termed as disinformation.

Negative impacts of online misinformation

- Information Bubbles: Algorithms amplify biases like racism and misogyny, fostering echo chambers.
- Threats to Democracy: Misinformation misleads voters, distorts elections, and erodes trust in institutions.
- Hindrance to SDGs: False narratives hamper progress on climate goals through greenwashing and disinformation.
- Economic Impact: It triggers market panic, volatility, and financial losses.

Challenges in tackling online misinformation

- Rapid Platforms: The unprecedented speed of digital platforms poses significant threats to information integrity.
- Reader Disconnect: Fact-checkers are often disconnected from readers, who may be unaware of any corrections or invalidations provided.
- Encrypted Apps: Hard to monitor false content.
- Elderly more vulnerable: For instance, those over 65 are three to four times more likely to share false news compared to younger individuals.
- Engaging Formats: Memes and videos spread misinformation effectively.

Way ahead

UN's "Global Principles for Information Integrity" provides 5 principles for curbing online misinformation and upholding human rights such as freedom of expression:

- Societal Trust and Resilience: Promote inclusive digital safety practices to protect vulnerable groups across languages and contexts.
- Healthy Incentives: Shift to human rights-based business models, avoiding behavioural tracking-driven advertising.
- Public Empowerment: Enhance digital literacy, user input, and service interoperability.
- Free and Pluralistic Media: Ensure press freedom, journalist safety, and support public interest media.

- Transparency and Research: Improve platform transparency, researcher access, and safeguard civil society actors.

Conclusion

At a time when billions are exposed to false narratives, distortions, and lies, it is crucial to prioritize a safer and more trustworthy information ecosystem. In the words of UN Secretary-General António Guterres, "No one should be at the mercy of an algorithm they don't control, which was not designed to safeguard their interests, and which tracks their behaviour to collect personal data and keep them hooked".

6.4.1. OBSCENITY ON DIGITAL PLATFORMS

Why in the News?

The Supreme Court, while hearing a case on obscene remarks in the India's Got Latent show on YouTube, urged the Solicitor General to propose regulatory measures to curb vulgar content online while balancing free speech.

Need for Regulating Obscenity on Digital Platforms

- Preserving Social and Cultural Values: Allowing unchecked obscene content weakens moral character, fostering disrespect and moral decay.
 - E.g., 2021 "Bulli Bai" app incident, where images of women of a minority community were auctioned.
- Protecting Human Dignity: Kant asserts that humans must never be treated as mere means to an end.
- Avoiding Normalization of Obscenity: The Harm Principle suggests that freedom of expression should not cause harm to society.
- Ethical Responsibility of Platforms: Digital Platforms are ethically mandated to ensure content balances free speech with societal well-being.
- Upholding Constitutional Morality: Article 19(2) establishes that the rights of freedom of speech and expression are not absolute and reasonable restrictions could be put on such rights.

Legal Framework to curb obscenity

- Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS) and Section 67 of the IT Act 2000 both prohibit obscene content.
- Information Technology (Intermediary Liability and Digital Media Ethics Code) Rules, 2021 require films and shows featuring explicit content such as swearing, sex, nudity, substance abuse, and violence to have age-based ratings.
- Additionally, laws like the Cinematograph Act (1952), Cable TV Act (1999), and Indecent Representation of Women Act (1986) also regulate obscenity.

Judicial pronouncement related to obscenity

In Ranjit D. Udeshi v. State of Maharashtra (1964): Supreme Court applied the Hicklin test, which considered any material with a "tendency to deprave and corrupt" as obscene.

Aveek Sarkar v. State of West Bengal (2014): Court shifted to the community standards test, evaluating obscenity based on prevailing social and moral norms.

Way Forward

- Justice & Objectivity: Define clear and consistent obscenity guidelines that consider India's cultural diversity to avoid bias or subjective judicial rulings.
- Accountability & Responsibility: Introduce a Broadcasting Bill to regulate OTT content, digital news, and emerging technologies, ensuring ethical and socially responsible media.
- Encouraging Ethical Content Creation: To ensure social responsibility & cultural sensitivity, promote self-regulation and ethical storytelling that reflects societal values and cultural respect.

- Empowerment & Informed Choice: Implement digital literacy programs to educate youth on media ethics, responsible viewing, and online safety.

6.5. ENVIRONMENTAL GOVERNANCE IN INDIA AT A GLANCE

Environmental Governance in India

Important Environmental Regulatory Bodies and Their Roles

CPCB & SPCBs: Formed under the Water Act (1974) and Air Act (1981) to ensure clean water bodies and improve air quality.

NBWL (National Board for Wildlife): Set up under the Wildlife Protection Act (1972) to conserve wildlife and forests.

CGWA (Central Ground Water Authority): Established under the EPA (1986) to regulate and manage groundwater use.

CAMPA: Manages funds for afforestation to compensate for diverted forest land.

NGT (National Green Tribunal): Formed under the NGT Act (2010) for speedy resolution of environmental disputes.

Issues with Environmental Regulatory Bodies in India

Limited Enforcement: Lack of staff, funds, and expertise weakens implementation of laws.

Weak Institutionalisation: Poor adherence to norms like efficiency and integrity; frequent creation of new bodies needs stronger institutional grounding.

Weak monitoring: Regulatory bodies such as State Pollution Control Boards suffer from insufficient funding, lack of modern equipment and infrastructure etc. to monitor compliance.

Lack of Transparency & Accountability: Inadequate public disclosure and stakeholder involvement reduce scrutiny and participation.

Way Forward (2024 SC Guidelines)

Structure: Define composition, qualifications, tenure, and appointment process.

Funding: Ensure adequate and clear financial support.

Clear Mandate: Clearly outline roles and responsibilities.

Accessibility: Publish rules and guidelines online in regional languages.

Accountability: Regular audits to assess performance

6.5.1. ECO-CENTRIC APPROACH

Why in the News?

Recently, Supreme Court highlighted that in international jurisprudence, India was the first country to shift from an anthropocentric approach to an eco-centric one.

More on the News

- Supreme Court directed Telangana Wildlife Warden to protect wildlife affected by the destruction of 100 acres of Kancha Gachibowli “forest” area.
 - Direction followed Telangana’s plan to auction 400 acres near University of Hyderabad for IT parks, sparking student protests.

About Eco-centric Approach

- Prioritizes ecosystem well-being, valuing nature for its intrinsic worth, not just human utility.
- Contrasts with anthropocentric approach, which prioritizes human interests and utility of nature.
- Supported by deep ecology movement (Arne Naess), advocating nature’s inherent value.
- Backed by Interest Theory, recognizing well-being of nature as intrinsically valuable.

Key Drivers of Eco-centric Approach

- Constitutional Mandate: Article 21 (Right to Life), Article 48A (State to protect environment/wildlife), Article 51A(g) (Citizens' duty to protect natural resources).
- Legislative Measures: Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act (1960), Wildlife (Protection) Act (1972).
- Environmental Jurisprudence: Increasing constitutionalization of environmental issues by the Supreme Court to tackle emerging crisis such as deforestation, river pollution, etc.
 - SC has used its power under Articles 32 and 142 to widen the scope of fundamental rights, to tackle environmental issues through judicial activism.
- Cultural Ethos: Indian traditions view ecology as a living entity, not subordinate to humans.

Judicial Pronouncements related to constitutionalization of environmental issues

- M.K. Ranjitsinh and Others v. Union of India and Others (2024): SC stated that the right to be free from the adverse effects of climate change should be recognised by Articles 14 and 21 of the Constitution.
- M.C. Mehta vs. Union of India (1986) – SC recognized pollution-free environment as part of Article 21 (Right to Life).
- Maneka Gandhi vs. Union of India (1978): Right to environment, free of danger of disease and infection is inherent in Article 21.

Conclusion

India's judiciary adopting an eco-centric approach is a transformative step in environmental jurisprudence, recognizing nature's intrinsic value. It aligns with constitutional goals of human-nature harmony, ensuring long-term ecological justice.

6.6. CENTRALLY SPONSORED SCHEME (CSS)

Why in the News?

NITI Aayog has launched a process to revamp Centrally Sponsored Schemes (CSSs) as part of expenditure reforms.

About Centrally Sponsored Schemes

- Definition: CSSs are jointly funded by the Centre and States, implemented by States in sectors under State and Concurrent Lists of the Constitution.
- Features:
 - Based on the 2015 Sub-Group of Chief Ministers' report on CSS rationalization.
 - Focus on the National Development Agenda for Vision 2022, requiring Centre-State collaboration.
 - Currently, 75 CSSs in 3 categories account for 10.4% of the Centre's budget.
 - Funding is routed through the State's Consolidated Fund, following the 14th Finance Commission's recommendations and abolition of Plan-Non Plan distinction in 2017.
- Funding Pattern for Core Schemes:
 - North Eastern and Himalayan States: 90:10 (Centre:State).
 - Other States: 60:40.
 - Union Territories (without Legislature): 100% Centre-funded.
- Monitoring: NITI Aayog oversees concurrent monitoring and third-party evaluation.

Rationale of CSSs

- Subsidiarity: Central authority performs tasks not effectively handled at local levels.
- Equalization: Ensures uniform access to basic services like health across states.

- Merit Goods: Prioritizes goods like subsidized housing or healthcare benefiting the poor.
- Directive Principles: Guides national efforts in areas like education (Article 45), welfare (Article 46), and public health (Article 47).

Issues with CSSs

- Resource Distribution: 15 schemes account for 91.14% of FY 2021-22 budget; many sub-schemes have minimal allocations (e.g., Green Revolution CSS has 18 sub-schemes, with allocations as low as ₹34 cr.).
- Proliferation of Schemes: Numerous small schemes lead to duplication and thin resource spread.
- Reduced Union List Spending: Increased spending on State subjects limits funds for Union List items like defense (down from 2% of GDP in 2011-12 to 1.5% in 2019-20).
- One-Size-Fits-All: Union-defined schemes ignore inter/intra-state variations.
- Low Absorption Capacity: States with lower GSDP struggle with matching contributions and fund utilization due to inadequate capacity.
- Suboptimal Monitoring: Focus on inputs rather than outcomes, limiting effective evaluation.

Way Forward

- Prioritize Funding: Phase out low-utility or small-budget CSSs (15th FC).
- Threshold Funding: New CSSs should have annual outlays above ₹300 cr. (Arvind Varma Committee, 2005); smaller schemes' funds should be transferred as Normal Central Assistance.
- Inflation-Indexed Funding: Link financial norms (e.g., midday meal costs) to the wholesale price index.
- Improved Governance (15th FC): Fix funding patterns, enhance data systems, regular reporting on output/outcome indicators.

6.7. CIVIL SOCIETY AT A GLANCE

Civil Society

Civil society is the non-state, non-market realm where individuals voluntarily form institutions to address social issues, influence the state, and pursue collective interests.

Role of civil Society

A Social basis for democracy as they highlight issues of importance and bring credibility to the political system by promoting transparency and accountability.

Valuable partner in policy formulation and implementation.

Act as important pressure groups.

Barriers in Efficient Functioning of Civil Societies

Lack of competent volunteers impacting quality and character of civil society

Accountability Issues as there have been increasing incidences of misuse of funds by these organizations

Inherent social, religious, ethnic and economic cleavages of Indian society generate inequality and conflict within Civil Society Organizations (CSOs)

Overbearing attitude and overregulation by government impacting independence and autonomy of CSOs

Negative perception of CSOs where these are demonised as "anti-national" and "anti-development" and accused of serving foreign interests.

Way Forward

Mutual understanding of the symbiotic relation between Civil society organizations (CSOs) and government.

Granting Legal Personality status to CSOs in order to protect personal liability for the affairs

Need for transparency on the processes and decision making by the government and such information should be easily accessible to NGOs

Exploring New Opportunities for Engagement: Action through technology; new sources of inspiration and activity driven by younger generations etc.

Exploring Civil Society's Role in Shaping India's Development Partnerships with other countries: for e.g., VANI (Voluntary Action Network India) contributed in Africa.

6.7.1. NON-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS (NGOS)

Why in the News?

The Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) has mandated NGOs under the Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Act (FCRA), 2010, to report changes in key office bearers, even if their FCRA license application is pending.

NGOs and their Regulation in India

- Definition: NGOs are non-profit organizations with humanitarian or development goals, operating independently from government.
- Formed under:
 - Societies: Under Societies Registration Act, 1860.
 - Trusts: Private under Indian Trusts Act, 1882; public under state legislation.
 - Charitable Companies: Under Section 8 of Companies Act, 2013.

Constitutional Provisions related to NGOs

Seventh Schedule: Trust and Charities/charitable institutions fall under Concurrent list i.e. laws on the subjects can be made by both Parliament and the State Legislature.

Article 19 (1)(c): Guarantees the right to form associations or unions.

- FCRA Registration: Mandatory under FCRA, 2010 for NGOs receiving foreign contributions.
 - Regulation under FCRA, 2010: Controls foreign funding to prevent misuse affecting national security or public interest. 2020 Amendments include
 - > Mandated specific bank accounts for foreign contributions.
 - > Prohibited fund transfers to others.
 - > Reduced admin expenditure from foreign funds to 20%.
 - > Empowered government to restrict fund utilization after inquiries., requiring Aadhar number as identification, etc.

Roles and Responsibilities of NGOs

- Governance: Enhancing democracy (e.g., ADR in electoral and political reforms), supporting government initiatives (e.g., Akshya Patra supports PM POSHAN initiative).
- Social Reforms: Human rights (e.g., Bachpan Bachao Andolan), women's empowerment (e.g., SEWA), poverty alleviation (e.g., NGO Goonj)
- Human Development: Education (e.g., NGO Pratham), health improvement (e.g., Médecins Sans Frontières (MSF) for TB, HIV).
- Other Activities: Research (Oxfam), cultural preservation (INTACH), environmental advocacy (Wildlife Trust of India).

Government Support for NGOs:

- Funds for welfare schemes (Swadhar, Ujjawala) & cultural grants via NGO networks.
- Darpan portal for unique NGO ID.

Challenges/Issues

- Functional: Donor-driven agendas, interference in national projects (E.g., Kudankulam atomic energy programme), security concerns.
- Regulatory: Strict FCRA rules, potential for financial mismanagement.
- Operational: Donor dependency, volunteer engagement, tech limitations.

Recommendations for Improvement

- Vijay Kumar Committee (2017): Light regulation, modernized registration, nodal body for oversight, accreditation, database for transparency, promoting volunteerism.
- 2nd ARC Recommendations: Decentralize FCRA implementation, balanced legislative interpretation.

Conclusion

Ensuring NGOs transparency through balanced regulation and institutional support is essential for fostering a vibrant, participatory democracy.

6.8. ADVERTISEMENT REGULATION IN INDIA

Why in the News?

Ministry of Health and Family Welfare recently asked Sports Authority of India and BCCI to take measures to prevent surrogate advertisement of tobacco/alcohol by sportspersons.

What are Surrogate Advertisements?

- About: These are Substitute ads for legally prohibited goods (e.g., tobacco, alcohol).
- Method: Misleading tactics like false descriptions or concealed information are used, leading to unfair trade practices.
 - Often employ celebrities and aspirational visuals (e.g., liquor brands promoting music CDs, pan masala brands advertising cardamom).
- Objective: To Gain brand recall in sports events, boosting sales (e.g., pan masala ads were 16% of IPL 2024 ad volumes).

Legal Framework

- Cable Television Networks (Regulation) Act, 1995, Cable Television Rules, 1994, and Cigarettes and Other Tobacco Products Act (COTPA), 2003: Ban direct/indirect promotion of liquor, tobacco, and cigarettes.
- Central Consumer Protection Authority (CCPA) Guidelines, 2022: Define surrogate ads for the first time.
- ASCI Code: Allows brand extensions for unrestricted goods if they are genuine and based on proportionality of ad scale to production/sales turnover.
- Drugs and Magic Remedies (Objectionable Advertisements) Act, 1954 prohibits advertisement for remedies alleged to possess magic qualities.
- SEBI (Investment Advisors) Regulations 2013: Framework for people who give financial advice for a fee. It also helps regulate activities of Finfluencers (those who give financial advice on social media).

Judicial Pronouncement related to Surrogate Advertisements

Indian Medical Association & Anr. V. Union Of India & Ors (2024): No advertisement will be permitted to run on television, print media, or the internet without a valid Self-Declaration Certificate.

TV Today Network v. Union of India (2021): Advertisement of club soda resembling the bottle of alcohol of the company was seen as a surrogate advertisement.

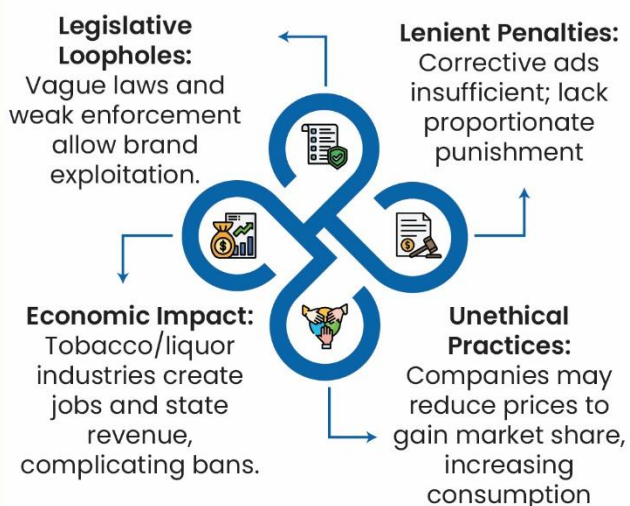

Implications of Surrogate Advertising

- Consumers: Misleads vulnerable groups (youth, poor) with aspirational content, undermining decision-making.
- Public Health: Smokeless tobacco brands dominated 41.3% of ads in 2023 Cricket World Cup (ICMR study).
- Companies: Boosts sales via brand visibility, encouraging unethical practices.
 - Significant revenue for digital platforms/BCCI (e.g., ₹60 lakh for a 10-second ad spot).
- Social influence and nudge theory: The use of 'out of sight- out of mind' marketing strategy nudges consumers to consume tobacco or alcohol products. E.g. Celebrity endorsements.

Way Forward

- ASCI/Government Recommendations:
 - Clear distinction between brand extensions and prohibited products.
 - No direct/indirect references or resemblance to banned products.
 - Avoid scenarios typical of prohibited product promotions.
- Strengthen Regulations:
 - Explicitly ban surrogate ads across media/events under COTPA/ASCI.
 - Regulate digital platforms, focusing on sports betting/health supplements.
- Enhance Accountability: Increase fines, hold media liable, promote responsible ads.
- Regulatory Oversight: Conduct audits, real-time monitoring, and stronger enforcement.
- Public Awareness: Launch IEC campaigns to educate consumers.

Issues in Regulation

Conclusion

Advertisements have a strong influence in the minds of consumers especially in this era of new age technology. It is vital to ensure legitimacy of their claims to ensure a healthy society.

6.9. ONLINE BETTING AND GAMBLING SECTORS

Why in the News?

Karnataka Government has formed a committee to draft the new legislation aimed at regulating online gambling and betting platforms, to curb fraudulent practices and support the legal gaming sector.

Need for regulating online betting

- Better monitoring and enforcement: legalisation of regulated betting and gambling activities, asserting that a complete ban has not been returning the desired results. (276th Report of Law Commission)
- To address the issue of match-fixing: Regulating betting could help reduce unethical participation by sportspeople in betting. (Justice Lodha Committee)
- Curbing black money: FICCI has been urging the government to legalize betting, estimating potential revenues of 12,000-19,000 crore rupees.
- Rising Addiction and Mental Health Issues: Easy access to betting apps increases the risk of addiction, especially among youth.

Concerns in regulating online betting and gambling

- Games of skill: Sports betting conceptually resembles horse betting therefore sports betting should be permitted in India.
 - In RMD Chamarbaugawala v. Union of India Case (1957), Supreme Court held that activities involving substantial skill are considered commercial and are protected under Article 19(1)(g) of the Constitution.
- Gambling is a state subject: It will violate the federal principle of division of power between centre and states, if Centre attempts to regulate it.
- Effect on tourism: Most states have banned it for locals but Gambling is a tourist attraction in states like Goa.

Existing Regulatory Framework

- Information Technology (Intermediary Guidelines and Digital Media Ethics Code) Rules, 2021 ("IT Rules 2021"): Co-regulatory regime whereby MeitY- recognised, independent self-regulatory bodies to verify whether an "online real- money game" is to be made available to the general public or not.
- Information Technology (Intermediary Guidelines and Digital Media Ethics Code) (Amendment) Rules, 2023: seek to regulate online gaming by mandating their verification, registration, and transparency regarding privacy policies as well as user agreements.
- State specific rules: State of Assam has Assam Gaming and Betting Act (1970); Goa has Goa, Daman and Diu Public Gambling Act (1976), etc.

Conclusion

While a complete ban on online betting has proven ineffective, a well-regulated framework can help curb illegality, protect consumers, and generate revenue. However, any regulation must respect federal principles, distinguish games of skill from chance, and ensure responsible digital engagement.

8.4. NATIONAL COMMISSION FOR WOMEN (NCW)

Why in the News?

NCW received 7,698 complaints this year, with domestic violence, assault, and criminal intimidation the most common grievances across India.

- Organizes Parivarik Mahila Lok Adalats: For speedy resolution of family and marriage-related disputes.
- NRI Cells: It processes complaints of Indian Women abandoned by their Non-Resident Indian (NRI)/Overseas husbands and assists with mediation by coordinating with different stakeholders.

Criticism of NCW

- Limited resources & reach: Inadequate budget, staff; low rural presence and low public awareness.
- Coordination gaps: Poor synergy with state commissions; jurisdictional overlaps; weak follow-up on recommendations.
- Political interference: Centre-appointed leadership often politicised; frequent changes impact independence. Delayed response in sensitive cases (e.g., Hathras & Manipur Case).

Way Forward

- Parliamentary committee recommendation
 - Review the National Commission for Women Act, 1990 to make the NCW more independent, and effective.

- Empowering the NCW with a certain degree of accountability over the police to implement their directions and penalty for non-compliance.
- A statutory linkage with State Commissions for Women to ensure smoother coordination.
- Ensure independent appointments: Involve civil society/judiciary for merit-based, bipartisan selection.
- Enhance resources & outreach: Increase funding, set up regional offices, partner with NGOs, and upgrade digital grievance tools.
- Focus on marginalised groups: Address needs of ST/SC, disabled, minorities; promote gender-disaggregated data and local research.

Conclusion

The NCW can prove to be a vital institution for advancing women's rights, but to be truly effective, it needs stronger legal powers, institutional independence, and wider grassroots reach. Strengthening it is key to ensuring gender justice and equality in India.

9. IMPORTANT ACTS AND LEGISLATIONS

9.1. WAQF (AMENDMENT) ACT, 2025

Why in the News?

The Act for amending the Waqf Act, 1995, received the assent of the President.

What is 'Waqf'?

- Waqf refers to property dedicated for religious or charitable use under Islamic law. It cannot be sold or repurposed.
 - Such properties are managed by a mutawalli (caretaker).
- India has the largest waqf land in the world – 8.7 lakh properties over 9.4 lakh acres.

Why there is need of Amendment?

Principle of "once a waqf, always a waqf" has led to various disputes and claims

There is no judicial oversight on tribunal decisions

Unsatisfactory Survey Work of Waqf Properties by the Survey Commissioner.

Key Changes in the Act:

- Creation of Waqf: Only the lawful owner can dedicate property as waqf.
- Survey of Waqf: District Collector will now handle waqf surveys instead of a Survey Commissioner.
- Government Property: Government land cannot be declared as waqf.
- Central Waqf Council: Headed by Union Minister in charge of waqf. Includes MPs, eminent persons, retired judges, and Muslim law experts.
 - All members (except the Minister) must be Muslims; at least 2 women and 2 non-Muslims must be included.
- State Waqf Boards: Members elected from Muslim MPs, MLAs/MLCs, and Bar Council. Must include:
 - 2 non-Muslim members
 - 1 each from Shia, Sunni, and Backward Muslim communities
 - 1 each from Bohra and Aghakhani groups (if active in the state/UT) (at least 2 women)
- Waqf Tribunals: Include a Judge (Chairperson), a Joint Secretary-level officer, and a Muslim law expert.
 - Appeals against Tribunal decisions can be made in the High Court within 90 days.
 - If the Tribunal is non-functional, one can directly approach the High Court.

Concerns raised against the Amendment

- Religious Freedom Violation: Non-Muslim members on Waqf Boards and centralized control violate Muslim autonomy, breaching Articles 14, 25, 26, and 29.
- Government Overreach: Shifting Waqf Board powers to District Collectors for property disputes risks delays and bias.
- Waqf by User Abolition: Ending recognition of properties as waqf based on long-term use threatens over half of 8.7 lakh waqf properties, many without formal deeds.
- Non-recognition of charity through waqf as an Essential Religious Practice (ERP) of Islam.

Conclusion

The Act tries to strike a balance between minority rights and state oversight by promoting inclusive representation and establishing checks against arbitrary waqf claims over public land.

What is Essential Religious Practice?

- Introduced by: The Supreme Court in Shri Shirur Mutt Case (1954).
- About: ERP as a test is employed by Indian Judiciary to determine whether a particular religious custom can be considered as the core aspect of a religion or not.

Judicial Pronouncements related to ERP

- Sri Adi Visheshwara Case (1997): Court distinguished between the religious and secular functions of the Temple.
- Shayara Bano Case (2017): Held triple talaq to be against basic tenets of religion and held that a practice merely permitted or not prohibited by religion cannot be considered an essential or positive tenet sanctioned by religion.

9.2. PLACES OF WORSHIP (SPECIAL PROVISIONS) ACT, 1991

Why in the News?

Recently, the Places of Worship (Special Provisions) Act, 1991 was in news due to filing of appeal to survey certain religious places.

About Place of Worship (Special Provisions) Act, 1991

- It prohibits conversion of any place of worship and to provide for the maintenance of the religious character of any place of worship as it existed on the 15th day of August, 1947.
- Exemptions:
 - Any place of worship referred to as an ancient and historical monument or archaeological sites covered by the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Sites and Remains Act, 1958.
 - Erstwhile Ayodhya Land dispute.

Argument in Support of the Act	Arguments Against the Act
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Promotes Peace: Prevents communal conflicts by maintaining the 1947 status of worship sites, avoiding replay of historical and communal disputes. • Upholds Secularism: Enforces India's constitutional secularism, ensuring equality among religions (as per 2019 Supreme Court ruling). • Limits Politicization: Discourages using religious disputes for political gain, focusing on modern issues. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Violates Rights: Restricts rights to equality (Article 14) and religious freedom (Articles 25, 26, 29). • Blocks Judicial Review: Bars courts from hearing disputes over worship sites' religious character, undermining justice. • Arbitrary Cutoff: The 1947 date ignores historical facts, denying redress for communities. • Inconsistent Exemption: Excluding Ayodhya but not other similar sites like Gyanvapi, is seen as unfair by many.

Conclusion

The Places of Worship (Special Provisions) Act, 1991 is presently under judicial scrutiny in multiple High Courts across the country. For the sake of long-term peace, national progress, and the realisation of constitutional ideals, it is imperative that the question of its constitutional validity is resolved at the earliest.
